Ferrioli makes Heppner stop

Ted Ferrioli, candidate for State Senate District #28, stopped in Heppner on Wednesday, October 16.

Ferrioli, who lives in John Day, is executive director of Malheur Timber Operators, Inc. in John Day. Previously, as general manager of Hauser Northwest, Inc., Ferrioli was involved with the harvesting of yew trees for the manufacture of Taxol which was used in the treatment of certain cancers.

In his campaign, Ferrioli calls for an eastside focus of economic development spending.

Lone Cardinals thump Honkers, 50 - 8

The Lone Cardinals jumped on Arlington early for the first 37 points of the game, before the Honkers could run a kickoff back for their only score of the 50-8 contest last Friday at Arlington.

Despite quite a lot of playing time by the second string, the Cards still managed to knock down 600 yards of offense and hold the Honkers to only 78 yards total offense.

Pete Cantu let the rushing attack with two touchdowns on eight carries and 136 yards. Freshman running back Allen Gribkov had a tremendous game as he had 80 yards rushing and two interceptions and 10 tackles on defense.

Mark Orem also had a strong game with 14 tackles and a 39-yard touchdown catch. Jacob Taylor had 10 tackles along with four receptions and one touchdown. Quarterback Luke Swanson had over 200 yards passing on 9-11 and two touchdown passes.

Freshman quarterback Mark McElligott had over 100 yards passing on 7 of 13 and one touchdown. Senior Joe Bacon played a very tough guard position and blew open several huge holes along with the rest of the line.

One of the highlights of the game was a swing pass from Swanson to center-turned-fullback Kelly Morgan who took it 85 yards in for the touchdown.

The Cards final game of the season will be at home against Wasco Friday at 7:30. "It should be a good game," said one lone fan.

Heppner Ponies beat Lone Cardinals

By Lonnie Rill

After a tough loss to Columbia Junior High last week the Heppner Ponies regained some steam by beating the lone Cardinals Monday night in a long running rivalry.

The Ponies beat the Cards 48-14 by good defense and tremendous offensive play by eighth grader Matt Baker.

Baker carried the ball three times for 148 yards and three touchdowns.

Watching the Ponies play is exciting because they play so well together. They may be the best young team to come around in a while.

The Ponies last opponent was Stanfield at Stanfield Tuesday.

Farming in Eastern Oregon has changed a lot over the last 50 years...

...except where farmers do their banking.

Bank of Eastern Oregon has been serving the needs of our agricultural way of life for over fifty years now—longer than any other bank in these parts. Sure there were other banks around before we started, but none of them are left in tact. And it seems like every time they change their names they get farther away from their roots.

No other bank has a greater stake in the success of our farmers and the Eastern Oregon businesses that support them than Bank of Eastern Oregon. No bank tries harder to make a difference for you.

For those who haven't ever banked with us, or for those of you who have been away for a while, there couldn't be a better time to bring your banking back home. Call us. Or if you can, stop in and say "Hello!"
