and letters from the children of whom the communities may be very proud. As parents, we knew our daughter well. The Heppner and Lone communities have shown us a dimension of Beth as an adult that we did not fully appreciate, and for that, we thank you. We are very proud of her.
The Slottee Family

Dear Friends,
We just can't thank everybody enough—firefighters, neighbors (near and far), churches here and in Lexington, all the folks we know, and several we didn't know before the fire—thank you ALL so very much for your help, comfort, your prayers, words of kindness and the support and gifts you have given our whole family.
All the professionals involved in cleaning up and fixing things after our house fire have said how remarkably excellent the job was the firefighters did, and that is the reason so much of the house and any belongings were saved at all. Thank God for all who responded to the emergency and for Officer Sweek noticing and reporting the smoke!
Please, if you have a cooktop, check under it to be sure there are no combustible parts of the cabinet inside too close; please!
Love to you all—
