

Computer class planned at HHS

A Blue Mountain Community College (BMCC) computer class covering Microsoft Excel has been scheduled for Saturday, March 8, at Heppner High School. The all-day seminar will run from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Cost is $50 per person. The class will focus on beginning spreadsheet operations and will cover data entry, formatting, charting, importing graphics, printing, exporting data and macros. No prior computer experience is necessary.

For more information, or to pre-register for the class, contact Anne Morter, BMCC coordinator for Morrow County, at 422-7040.

Speaker planned at Christian Life Center

Dan and Marty Womack
Dan and Marty Womack, from Hoquiam, Washington, will be guests for special services at the Christian Life Center, 535 W. Morgan Stree in Heppner on Sunday, Feb. 2, at 10:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. and Monday through Friday, Feb. 3-7, according to the Rev. Tim Van Cleave.

Rev. Womack has preached extensively across the United States as an evangelist, as a pastor, in church youth camps and family camp meetings, at banquets, in a series of revival crusades, one-night concerts, and in various types of church retreats. The evangelist served for a time as executive director of Northwest Teen Challenge, a drug and alcohol abuse prevention program. In association with that program, he spoke in public junior high and senior high school assemblies and classrooms against the use of drugs and alcohol.

The Womacks, are recording artists. In most services they sing three or four gospel songs, from Southern Gospel to contemporary to a country style.

In addition to their present traveling ministry, the Womacks have pastored in churches in Idaho, Missouri, and Washington.

The Rev. Womack attended Northwest College of the Assemblies of God in Kirklund, Washington, and Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg, Missouri. He was ordained with the Assemblies of God in 1967.

The public is invited to attend the services.

HHS Booster Club plans chili feed

The Heppner Booster Club is sponsoring a chili-potato feed, Saturday, Feb. 1, at the Heppner High home-economics room. Dinner hours will be from 3-6pm during the Heppner vs. Sherman County basketball games.

A complete dinner, which includes chili, potato, homemade bread, homemade pie and drink, is available for $4; chili, bread, and drink for $3; potato, topping, bread and drink for $2; or homemade pie and drink for $1.50. The entire family may eat for $15. There will also be a price break on children on individual meals.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 74 people present for the Senior dinner Jan. 22 and four meals were home delivered. Sara Horn of Hermiston won the meal ticket. Members of the Catholic Church served. Volunteers who were left off the list last week were Paul Werner, who helps clear and wash the tables, and Tom Gonty, who delivers the meals to people who are not able to come to the center. Their help is much appreciated.

The menu for the meal Feb. 4 is sauerkraut and wieners, oven fried potatoes, green beans, rolls, cookies, applesauce, coffee, tea and milk. Members of the Methodist Church will serve. The Meal Site Committee will meet at 1 p.m. Hearing aid assistance will be provided at 10 a.m., and blood pressures checked at 11 a.m.

Four seniors played pinochle in the office Friday afternoon. It was warmer there than in the sitting room. It was very cold in the dining room Wed. morning, but with several small heaters going it started to warm up a little. Roger Schoonover came and got the heat pump going so it was comfortable by lunch time. Hopefully it will keep working until warm weather arrives.
