

Living history planned at museum

"Live mannequins" pictured above are Tai Sweek, Genny Sneddon, Amanda Sneddon and Jenni Patton.

A living history display featuring vintage costumes worn by local junior high and high school students will be held at the Morrow County Museum in Heppner following the St. Patrick's parade Saturday approximately between 2-3 p.m.

Morrow County Museum Director Marsha Sweek says this is the first time something of this kind has been held at the museum. She says that she hopes to have living history scenes in each historical room at the museum and in the nearby school house.

Rami Shedd and Karen Morgan assisted in the display, "with a lot of cooperation with the junior high and high school."

Holland family finds lucky shamrock

Dale Holland and his children, Matt, six, and Bryan, five, found the St. Patrick's Shamrock.

The Hollands, who had been following the clues in the paper, discovered the shamrock at the antique cement mixer located near the Christmas tree on Main Street in Heppner.

They were presented with a one-fourth ounce gold American Eagle coin by Linda LaRue of the Bank of Eastern Oregon.

The Shamrock Hunt was sponsored by the Heppner Gazette-Times and the Bank of Eastern Oregon.

Folk quartet to perform Saturday

The Cascadia Folk Quartet will perform at the Heppner Junior High Gymnasium on Saturday, March 16, for an evening of family entertainment. The performance will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The Cascadia Folk Quartet has performed in Heppner a number of times as the Whamadiddle Dingbats. One of the songs they have recorded is about the 1903 Heppner Flood. They perform with many different instruments, including the Hammer Dulcimer.

Tickets for the performance are available at Murray Drugs and will be available Saturday at the information booth on main street. Cost is $5 for adults and $3 for 12 years and under.

The Cascadia Folk Quartet is sponsored by the St. Patrick's Day Committee.

Sunday events wrap up the weekend

On the run all day Saturday, trying not to miss any of the events? Sunday is an opportunity to relax, first with a great breakfast sponsored by the Willow Creek Golfers, followed by the church of your choice. Then drive down to see the Sheep Dog Trials at the Thompson Ranch.

Fifty sheep dog handlers have entered a total of 80 dogs for the two-day event, held March 15-16. Competitors will be coming from seven states and as far away as Wyoming, Alaska and southern California, and will be vying for prizes in three classes. Chairperson Mary Hamilton said, "One spectator is coming from Vancouver just so her daughter can watch because she saw the movie, 'Babe.'" (As far as this writer knows, there are no pigs at these dog trials.)

Spectators may wish to watch a bit of roping, but be sure to plan for the auction, the lamb barbecue and entertainment by the "Outhouse Singers," all located at the fair pavilion.

Scheduling gives everyone the chance to get an up-close preview of the auction items, while enjoying music by former Heppnerites Ron and Joe McDonald.

Tantalizing lamb by chef Harrison may be eaten prior to, during or after the auction, with inside tables provided.

"Auction chairperson Doris Brosnan and committee have put in long hours," said Chamber manager Claudia Hughes. "Now the success depends on bidders. It is the auction that funds ongoing St. Paddy celebrations and the barbecue that provides south Morrow County scholarship funds. Both make a great finale to the busy weekend."

Mrs. O'Leary's stew feed set for Friday

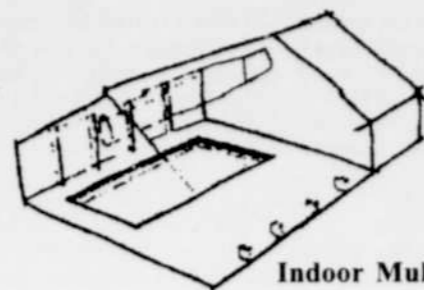

Don't miss Mrs. O'Leary's Irish Beef Stew Feed, Friday, March 14, from 5 to 7 pm. at St. Patrick's Senior Center on Heppner's Main Street.

"The stew is delicious as are our fresh baked rolls, coleslaw, and desserts," said Jean Brazell of the United Methodist Church.

The Heppner United Methodist Church has sponsored the event for nine years. Proceeds are used to help this church better serve the community, said Brazell. Charges are $5 for adults, $2 for children 6-12, and dinner for children five and under is free. Take-outs are available. "It's a wonderful time of fellowship," concluded Brazell.
