Bike-a-thon set in lone, April 27

The annual St. Jude "Wheels for Life" Bike-a-thon is scheduled for Sunday, April 27, with registration to begin at noon, near the lone Fire Hall.

"Participants are urged to gather pledges now to raise funds for this worthwhile cause," said ride coordinator Anne Morter. Riders turning in at least $35 in pledges receive a St. Jude t-shirt. Those turning in $75 or more receive a sports bag and t-shirt. Pledge sheets are available at the lone Post Office and the lone branch of the Bank of Eastern Oregon, or by contacting Morter at 422-7429 or Janet Thompson, 422-7549.

Two courses are available-a one mile circuit route within the lone city limits for younger participants, and "anyone feeling up to the prospect of a longer ride" is invited to tour the 22 mile route between Ruggs and lone. Transportation from lone to Ruggs will be available for bikes and riders, and will leave lone at approximately 12:30 p.m. Riders may also register at Ruggs.

The ride will start at 1 p.m. from both locations. Other non-motorized forms of transportation are also welcomed, such as baby strollers and roller blades. Drinks, cookies and ice cream cones will be provided for all participants at the conclusion of the ride.

"The St. Jude Bike-a-thon raises funds for the St. Jude Children's Hospital, which is the largest childhood cancer research center in America in terms of the number of patients treated and treatment success," said Morter.
