

SMC Scholarship Trust announces scholarship winners

The South Morrow County Scholarship Trust has announced the recipients of the 1997 $500 scholarships. Scholarship winners are Brent Gunderson, Toni Kemp, Traci Dickenson and Lindsey Waterland, all seniors at Heppner High School.

Brent Gunderson
Brent Gunderson, the son of David and Tricia Gunderson, Heppner, was selected to play in the 96/97 East/West Shrine Team. He was named second team all state linebacker and offensive guard and first team all conference linebacker and offensive guard. He also lettered in golf and football. He plans to attend Eastern Oregon State College, and study accounting to become a CPA.

attend Graceland College and major in pre-med or biology. After Graceland, medical school and internship, she plans to pursue a career as a pediatrician. Traci is the daughter of Steve and Kathi Dickenson, Heppner.

Lindsey Waterland
Lindsey Waterland is this year's recipient of the corporation award. She is the daughter of Karla Waterland, Heppner, and the late George Waterland. She plans to attend Eastern Oregon State College, majoring in nursing. Her scholarship is from the interest of the investment of Kinzua Corporation of Seattle, which was a 10,000 gift. Each year a $500 gift is given in honor of the corporation. The four students were selected out of 16 applicants on the basis of academic achievement, chosen field of study, financial need,

Engagement

Tanja Anderson and Jasen Tenneson

Anderson-Tenneson

Allen and Cheryl Anderson of Olex announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Tanja Anderson, to Jasen Tenneson, both of Goldendale, WA.

The bride-elect graduated from Ione High School in 1994 and attended Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton.

Tenneson is the son of Roy and Sandy Hawkins of The Dalles, and Jerry Tenneson of Bonneville. He graduated from The Dalles High School in 1992 and currently works at NW Aluminum in Goldendale.

The couple plan a June 6 wedding at the NW Aluminum plant in The Dalles.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 73 people in attendance at the senior birthday dinner April 30, and nine meals were delivered to homes. Members of the First Christian Church served. Isabel Parry won the birthday gift of two complimentary tickets to the Friday breakfast at the senior center.

The menu for dinner May 14 will be beef enchiladas, corn, tossed salad, fruit and cookies. Members of the Christian Missionary Fellowship will serve. A center board meeting will be held at 1 p.m.. Blood pressures will be taken at 11 a.m.

Breakfast will be held at the center Friday, May 9, from 8 to 10:30 a.m. This week's menu will be dry or hot cereal, fruit and biscuits and gravy with coffee, milk or juice. Suggested donation is $2 for those over 60.

One table of pinocle was in play Friday afternoon. The carpet and upholstered furniture were shampooed Friday afternoon. Debby Peck's presentation at the center Saturday was cancelled because of illness.

Six people watched the movie "Larger than Life" Sunday evening.

Two new tenants have moved in to St. Patrick's Senior Center apartments, Mrs. Straley on the third floor, and Lester Corwin in the first floor apartment. We welcome both of them and hope their stay is long and pleasant.

The senior bus will take seniors on a tour of the county on Saturday, May 24, departing Heppner at 10 a.m. Those planning to attend should bring a lunch. A sign up sheet is in the Senior Center office or call 676-9030.

Other dates to remember are as follows: Tues. & Thurs., 10 a.m., exercise; Wed., 11 blood pressure clinic; 12 noon, senior dinner; Friday, 2 p.m., cards; Sunday, 7 p.m., movie.
