

Choir, symphony plan performance

The South Morrow Community Choir and the Willow Creek Youth Symphony will perform jointly for a spring concert on Sunday, June 1, at 7 p.m. at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Heppner.

Deborah Wryn, Ione, is the director of the choir and Sharia Erich, Heppner, is the accompanist. Erich is also the director of the symphony. Both groups are looking forward to sharing their music with the community with a variety of music by both the choir and symphony, said Wryn.

The choir has prepared a variety of music for this concert. One is a Irish song that is titled "Be Thou My Vision." A ballad jazz piece, called "Sing Me To Heaven", is also included. A trumpet duet, Paul Marshall and Matt Jepsen, will accompany the choir on Handel's "Awake the Trumpet's Lofty Sound."

The Brass Quintet will again perform with the choir for the piece, "Exultate Justi". Members of the group are Matt Jepsen, trumpet, Paul Marshall, trumpet, and Bill Jepsen, trombone, all of Heppner; Danny Hunt, secondary music director from Umatilla, French horn, and Isaac Lynch, a student at Umatilla High School, tuba.

The symphony will also perform an array of music, from Jacques Offenbach's "Can Can from Orpheus In the Underworld" to a recent piece titled, "The Wind Beneath My Wings". They will also perform several serious selections such as the "William Tell Overture", "In The Hall Of The Mountain King", and the "Unfinished Symphony", written by Franz Schubert.

The symphony and the choir will also perform on Tuesday, June 3, at Riverside High School auditorium at 7 p.m. for the people of north Morrow County.

Everyone is invited to attend either or both concerts. The program will be the same in both places.

Both groups are members of the Morrow County Arts Council that was formed in May of 1996. The choir has been in existence since 1984 and the symphony was formed two years ago. Funds for both groups this year has come from the Morrow County Unified Recreation District who helped purchase music, risers and stands. The concert is free of charge, but a donation basket will be available to continue the support of both of these groups, said Wryn.

Both groups will be on hiatus until September. Anyone interested in joining either group, may contact Wryn, SMCC, at 422-7017 or Sharla Erich, WCYS, at 676-5851.
