

Hot Shot shooting contest underway

Sunday June 1, marked the first day of the Hot Shot Shooting Contest for Heppner High School boys basketball players. The contest consists of a series of timed shooting drills and free throws and will be held five times during the month of June.

The contest was devised by coach Bob Ployhar to entice the players to work on their shooting during the off season.

Chris Anthony grabbed the early lead in the junior/senior division by racking up 183 points, while Tim Dickenson came up second with 165 points.

Chris's younger brother Nick took first place honors in the freshman/sophomore division by scoring 133 points, while Craig Scott was a close second with 129 points.

The Heppner Booster Club has donated plaques from Peterson's Jewelers to be awarded to final winners in each division when the contest ends.

Since only the best score is kept, a player may participate in as many or few contests as he wants and still be eligible to win the final.

Churches plan Bible school
