Swim lessons to be offered in lone

Swimming lessons will be offered at the lone pool from Tuesday, July 29 through Friday, August 8.

Lessons will be taught by Brandi Orem. The cost will be $15 per class.

All levels will be offered depending on interest. Levels one and two will last one-half hour and levels three through seven will be 45 minutes. Space is limited, so people are advised not to wait until the last minute to sign up. Call 422-7583 and leave a message to register.

Levels six and seven will start at 8:30 a.m. and will focus on building strength and increasing distance. A variety of safety and rescue techniques are included.

Levels four and five will begin at 9:30 a.m. and will focus on stroke refinement and deep water. Becoming familiar with water safety is especially important at this stage, said a spokesperson.

Level three will begin at 10:30 a.m. The front and back crawl will be the main focus.

Level two lessons will begin at 11:30 a.m. Swimmers will float on their front and back on their own.

Level one begins at 12 p.m. This level is for swimmers who are not familiar with the water. It gives children a chance to get in and explore, and feel safe in the pool.

"Safety is taught in all levels, because it is an important part of swimming," said the spokesperson. Classes are based on American Red Cross courses. If all requirements are reached, students will receive an American Red Cross card for that level.

Everyone is welcome to sign up for the lessons.
