

It's carnival time at Heppner Elementary

Fairy Teri Straley (left), mermaid Sarah Kendrick and Superman Jason Kendrick, along with mom Deborah Kendrick, all Heppner, enjoy the Heppner Elementary School Parents Club annual carnival and haunted house held Oct. 30 at the Morrow County Fairgrounds.

One little carnival goer is brave enough to stick her hand in the skeleton's mouth for a treat at the carnival.

Kylie Doherty, eight years old, Heppner, looks bewitchingly at the book selection at the Heppner Elementary Parents Club book fair, held along with the annual carnival and haunted house.

4-H News

The Tasty Quintet
by Kristal Temple

On Oct. 24, the Tasty Quintet, a 4-H cooking club, had its second meeting at Karen Temple's house.

During the meeting, club members learned how to keep fruits from going brown, how to store fruits and to never put bananas in a refrigerator. Members also made fruit kabobs and PBJ muffins.

The next meeting is at Robin Jones' house on Friday, Nov. 7.

The Barnyarders
by Dan Jepsen

The Barnyarders 4-H swine club held their first meeting of the new 4-H year on Oct. 28.

They discussed goals for the year ahead and signed up the following new members: Robert Worden, Heather Rill and Roy Proctor. Kristi Worden was elected president for this year. Julie Proctor was chosen as vice president. Emily Unruh was re-elected secretary/treasurer, and Daniel Jepsen is the new club reporter.

At the meeting, the Barnyarders agreed to donate $80 to the new livestock building at the fairgrounds.
