Barton E. Clark

Barton E. Clark, 84, of Heppner, died Friday, November 21,1997 at Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

The funeral for Mr. Clark was Wednesday, November 26, 1997 in Heppner. Concluding service and interment followed at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Barton E. Clark was born October 3, 1913, at Newton, Illinois, to Noah and Leona Kibler Clark, He attended schools at Newton for a time then moved to Morrow County with his family and attended Liberty Schoolhouse. He attended Ione High School graduating in 1931. He attended Linfield College, then the University of Oregon, graduating in 1937.

On October 29, 1936, he married Beth Wright at Eugene. He was a teacher, superintendent and school administrator at Monument and Pine City. He began ranching in Morrow County during the 1940s, continuing until his retirement.

Mr. Clark was also active in the insurance industry as an agent and as a member of the board of directors for Grange Mutual Insurance Association of Oregon, the Grange Insurance Association of Seattle and Grange Mutual Life Insurance Company in Nampa, Idaho.

He had been a chairman of the Morrow County school board, a member of the Morrow County Historical Society and had served as chairman of the board of the Morrow County Grain Growers for a number of years. He was a member of the Heppner Elks Lodge, the Grange, and was a senior warden at All Saints Episcopal Church.

Survivors include his wife, Beth of Heppner; son, Ned of Heppner; daughter, Nonda Harwick of Bend; sister, Betty Fouts of Twin Falls, Idaho; seven grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. A sister, Nellie Allen, preceded him in death.

Memorial contributions may be made to Pioneer Memorial Home Health Care, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, OR 97836, or to All Saints Episcopal Church Memorial Fund, P.O. Box 246, Heppner, OR 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, was in charge of arrangements.

James E. Campbell

James Edwin Campbell, 63, of Heppner, died Sunday, November 23, 1997, at his home.

Graveside service will be 1 p.m. Friday at Paterson Memorial Cemetery, at Paterson, Washington.

James Edwin Campbell was born August 31, 1934, at Colorado Springs, Colorado, to Darrel and Edna Graves Campbell. He grew up at Colorado Springs and attended schools there, then moved with his family to Washington where he attended Walla Walla High School, graduating in 1952.

On April 1, 1956, he married Judy B. Alexander at Kennewick, Washington.

He served as a paratrooper with the 11th Airborne Division of the U.S. Army in Germany and Lebanon from December 1956-December 1958.

He was employed as a diesel mechanic for most of his working years, working at several shops in Pasco, Washington. He also worked for Lampson Railroad and later Windust Park near Kaklatus, Washington.

He was a member of the Machinist's Union and the Teamster's Union at Pasco; the National Rifle Association, the Desert Rifle and Pistol Club, and the Tri-Cities Metallic Silhouette Association.

After his retirement in 1992, he and his wife moved to Oregon, where they were caretakers of a ranch near Monument. In January 1997, they moved to a mountain home near Heppner to enjoy hunting and fishing, rockhounding and their dogs.

Survivors include his wife, Judy, at the home; son, James Darrel Campbell of Kennewick; daughter, Jill Cargill of Benton City, Washington; sisters, Edna Harris of Longview, Washington; and Sally Reece of Kennewick; and two grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to a charity of choice.

Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, is in charge of arrangements.

Irma L. Morrison

Irma L. Morrison, 84, of The Dalles, died Wednesday, November 19, 1997, at her home.

Memorial services were held Tuesday, November 25, 1997 in The Dalles. Private interment followed at the IOOF Cemetery in The Dalles.

The first of three children, she was born November 27, 1911, on a farm near Wasco, to Ernest and Edna Everett Ferrell. She spent her early years in Sherman County and graduated as valedictorian from Wasco High School in 1927. She attended Oregon Normal School at Monmouth (now Western Oregon University).

On September 15, 1936, she married Jodie K. Morrison at Spokane. After working as office manager for Walther Williams Motors in The Dalles, she and her husband moved to a wheat ranch near Ione. They operated the wheat and cattle ranch until Mr. Morrison's death in May, 1977. Mrs. Morrison retired to The Dalles in 1979.

She enjoyed politics, reading and spending time with family and friends.

Survivors include children, Michaele K. DeBisschop of Beaverton, Tass F. Morrison of Albany, and Meredith J. Morrison of Portland; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; two stepgrandchildren and two step great-grandchildren; and a brother, Robert Ferrell of Enterprise. She was preceded in death by a sister, Elda Clough; and a granddaughter, Megan Vertner.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Devers Eye Institute at Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland, through Smith Callaway Chapel, 311 Union Street, The Dalles, OR 97058.

4-H News

Kool Kitchen Kids
by Leland Rill

The 4-H club, the Kool Kitchen Kids, held their first meeting Nov. 11. The club started the meeting by watching a video on how to prepare a yeast bread. They then started to make bread and mixed all of the ingredients and set it to bake.

Members then started a business meeting. They started with the election of officers. President is Claire Anderson, vice president is Megan Bailey, secretary is Shelley Rietmann, reporter is Leland Rill, and sargent at arms is Jodie Carlson.

After the business meeting, members tried their bread. The group agreed it was a success.

Ione Topic Club meets

The Ione Topic Club met November 19 at the home of June Crowell. Hostesses were June and Kristy Crowell.

The by-laws and constitution were reviewed and revisions made.

The program, presented by June Crowell, described the charitable program for needy babies at Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston. The Topic Club members decided to bring gifts for the babies to the December meeting instead of their usual gift exchange.

Several members told of new books they had read. Some of the new books in the library this month are: "The Clinic" by J. Kellerman;"10 lb. Penalty" by Dick Francis; "Into Thin Air" by Jon Krakauer; "The Royals" by Kitty Kelley; and "Unnatural Exposure" by P. Cornwell.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Northeast Oregon Assembled Land Exchange

The Prineville and Vale Districts of the Bureau of Land Management are considering an exchange of public and private lands, with Clearwater Land Exchange of Orofino, Idaho acting as facilitator. The exchange could result in the transfer of up to 90,000 acres of public lands within the counties of Baker, Grant, Morrow, Umatilla, Union and Wheeler to private ownership. Private lands of like value would be transferred into public ownership. A draft Environmental Impact Statement has been prepared and is available for review. A public comment period is in effect until December 31, 1997. Written comments should be submitted by that date to the BLM office at 3165 10th Street, Baker City, OR 97814 or P.O.Box 550, Prineville, OR 97754. For more information, contact BLM at 541-523-1256 (Baker City) or 541-416-6700 (Prineville).

THE CLASSIFIEDS

CLASSIFIED DEADLINE: Tuesdays at 12:00 Noon

CARD OF THANKS

Dear Friends and Relatives-

Your beautiful cards, letters and well wishes have overwhelmed us. It means so much to us that you thought as much of Leland as we did. Your sympathetic thoughts, prayers and heartfelt offers of comfort have touched all of us in a very special way. Our loss was devastating, but you have helped up to move past the initial grief.

A very special thanks to Helen McCabe-Crawford who planned the luncheon, and all of the wonderful Ione ladies that helped to prepare it. You have helped many families in this same manner and your hospitality has added to your fame. Additional special thanks to "Good Neighbors," those friends and family from Ione, Heppner, Condon and Arlington that helped supply the rest of the meal.

Donations to the Condon Fire Dept. can be made in memory of Leland H. Eubanks, in care of the Bank of Eastern Oregon, Condon Branch. He loved his time with the fire department and we felt that it would be something he would have approved.

Sincerely,
Marlene Pointer
and the Eubanks Family
