The Heppner Junior High Drama Club, under the direction of Sally Walker, will present a three-act comedy, "Your Guests are Ghosts", by John Vorholt, on Thursday, December 11, at 7 p.m. and on Saturday, December 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

The story takes place in the Peaceful Rest Retirement Home which is a place of retirement for displaced ghosts or ghosts who are tired of haunting different buildings and homes. Now they are about to lose their home and must find a way to save it, but being ghosts, what will they do? Over 24 students are working to put this production on.

Everyone is invited to attend the production. Cost is $2 for adults and $1 for students and younger children.

BMCC prepares for dinner

The holidays have arrived at Blue Mountain Community College, as students and staff prepare for the 27th annual Christmas Eve dinner. The dinner provides area residents who otherwise might spend Christmas alone with an evening of holiday cheer, said a BMCC news release.

The festivities include a turkey dinner with all the trimmings, a musical program in the theater, a special room for children who prefer to play games and listen to stories and a visit from Santa with gifts for everyone. The dinner and program are continuous, starting at 5 p.m. with the dining room closing at 6:30 p.m. Santa also arrives at 6:30 p.m.

Through the years the dinner has become a BMCC holiday tradition. The Associated Student Government coordinates the event, receiving help from staff members, administration, alumni and community members. Last year over 600 guests attended the dinner.

As in the past, transportation will be provided for people who do not own cars or who are unable to drive at night. In addition, meals will be provided to shut-ins. People in need of either service should call 278-5929 or 278-5930.

According to GeneAnn McLean, director of student activities, donations are vital to the success of the dinner which is offered free of charge. Donations may be sent to BMCC Christmas '97, P.O. Box 100, Pendleton, OR, 97801. Checks may be made payable to Christmas '97. All donations are tax deductible.
