

Ione High School track team takes first at state

He's baack. Morrow County District Attorney Earl R. Woods, Jr., was back on the job October 1 at the courthouse in Heppner after nearly eight months serving with his National Guard unit in Bosnia.

Virginia and Dick Wilkinson (center) present a $30,000 check toward the new fairgrounds multipurpose building to Fair Board Chairman Sam Bellamy (left) and board member Kelwayne Haguewood

Ione High School teacher Del LaRue retires

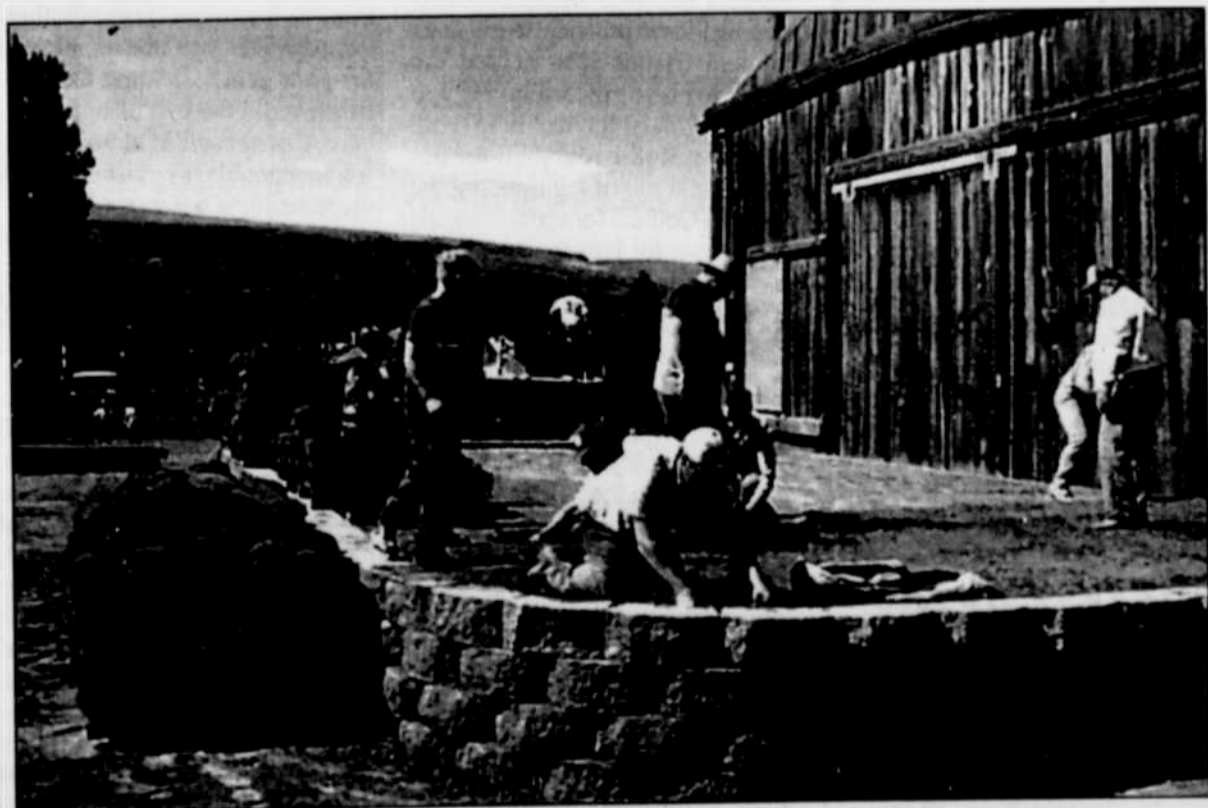

Nikki McElligott, Ione, saves Lee Anstegui from drowning in pond

Mustang football team earns district title, heads to state

First annual Heppner Christmas light parade

Volunteers lay sod on the new stage at the expanded Ione Park as the city prepares for its annual Fourth of July celebration, which was bigger this year with the addition of a blues festival

Workers repour cement for half of the city of Heppner's Main Street logo

Hello 1998