Lexington Grange meeting held

By Delpha Jones
Lexington Grange #726 met on Monday evening, Jan. 19, for the regular meeting. The evening started with the annual pancake supper prepared and served by the men of the Grange.

Reports were heard from the Chaplain and GWA chairman. Plans were discussed on a GWA meeting in February to plan to help with the St. Patrick's Celebration.

The agriculture chairman Kenneth Smouse gave a report on the Conservation Reserve Enhancement program. This will authorize the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture to pay landowners to set aside natural buffers along rivers and waterways. This also helps with the cost of tree planting. Smouse reported the U.S. Government will assist the states in the natural buffers and help with the fish recovery plan.

A guest for the evening and holding the office of Ceres was Tish Kingsboro, a member of Tillicum Grange in Umatilla County.
