In the Service

Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Kellie D. Matzen, a 1993 graduate of Riverside High School, Boardman, recently departed the Persian Gulf aboard the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier USS Nimitz, the lead ship of the USS Nimitz Battle Group.

Matzen's ship, homeported in Bremerton, WA, will shift its home to Norfolk, VA when it finishes this deployment in March. The shift will allow USS Nimitz to undergo repairs and to refuel its nuclear reactors at Newport News Shipyard.

Matzen joined the Navy in February 1994.

Accountant earns CPA

Lori Ehardt, a staff accountant with the accounting firm of Collins, Butler & Co., P.C., has passed the certified public accountants exam given by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Ehardt is the daughter of Larry and Kathy Fetsch of Ames, Oklahoma. Larry Fetsch was the former Morrow County Sheriff. Ehardt attended school at Ione High School and graduated from Enid High School, Enid, Oklahoma. She graduated from Phillips University at Enid in December of 1996. She and her husband, David, live near Ames, Oklahoma, with their two children.
