Babysitter training course offered

Do you or someone you know ever wish for a trained, reliable baby sitter "on call"? Do you know of a youth, 11 years old or older, who would like to learn a valuable life skill and be trained to earn money at the same time?

A good way to resolve these concerns might be to sponsor a youth or encourage your own child to participate in the babysitter training to be conducted on March 25 in Heppner.

At the training, youth can learn: what is expected while baby-sitting; how to conduct a business; how to handle emergencies; how to stay in control in a variety of situations; the needs of children at age levels; simple meals and snacks and much more.

The March 25 training in Heppner will be at the All Saints Episcopal Church from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Registration is on a first-come first serve basis. The registration fee of $4 will cover class materials. All participants need to bring their own sack lunch; snacks will be provided.
