Committee to wrap up year

Committee chairpersons Claudia Hughes and Cara Osmin announce that the St. Patrick's celebration wrap-up meeting is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. Thursday, March 19, at Kate's.

This is the time to evaluate the celebration while it's fresh in everyone's mind, says Hughes.

Hughes and Osmin say the show couldn't have gone on this year without Doris Brosnan, auction chair; Bob Kahl, parade chair; Molly Rill, Ceili chair; Judie Laughlin, button and information booth chair; Dave Sykes, coffee hour chair; Delanne Ferguson and the Leprechauns; O'Farley's crew; and various organizations and individuals who worked, including Mike Duffy and the Irish singers and local musicians.

The key chair persons have met the past four months to deal with all the logistics of a once small celebration becoming a major undertaking. "They welcome community input and more volunteers," says Hughes.

O'Ducky Race winners announced

Tammy Rutherford, Boardman, was the first place winner in the St. Patrick's Celebration O'Ducky Race. Rutherford won $100.

Second place of $75 went to Dave Matheny, Heppner, who donated his winnings back to the

KNOW YOUR LOTTERY

DO YOU KNOW HOW LOTTERY PROFITS ARE ALLOCATED?

A. Rock, Paper, Scissors

B. Dart Throw

C. Coin Flip

D. The People of Oregon

Luck has absolutely nothing to do with it. Instead, it's up to the people to decide. In 1984, Oregonians voted overwhelmingly to establish a state lottery, with profits directed to enhance economic development within our borders. In 1995, you voted again—this time to allow Lottery profits to help a public education system in need.

Who decides which specific programs and projects get Lottery funding?

That's the job of our voter-elected state legislature, whose decisions have distributed over $1.6 billion in Lottery profits since our inception.

Want to find out more? We invite you to visit our web site at www.oregonlottery.org. If you have any questions, please e-mail us at lottery.webcenter@state.or.us. Or drop us a line at Post Office Box 12649, Salem, Oregon 97309. The Oregon Lottery. It does good things for Oregon.
