

Mustangs drop opener to Pendleton JVs

By Rick Paulus
The Heppner Mustangs opened their 1998 baseball season by losing to the Pendleton JVs, 12-8. The Mustangs were out-hit 12-6 and committed six errors to five for Pendleton.

The Mustangs were led at the plate by Chris Anthony, with two doubles. Derek Gunderson and Tim Sumner each had two RBIs.

Tim Dickenson started on the mound for the Mustangs and took the loss. Anthony pitched three innings of relief and did not allow a run.

Brian Turk of Pendleton hit the game's only home run and ex-Mustang Jeff Waterland had two RBIs against his former teammates.

The Mustangs will be counting on Sumner this season for his pitching, hitting and play behind the plate. Senior Chris Anthony will play in the outfield and see plenty of action on the mound.

Juniors Shane Matheny, Dickenson and Gunderson will anchor the infield. Matheny was an all-league selection last year at third and Gunderson will play second. Dickenson will play shortstop when not pitching.

Along with the veterans, the Mustangs have a good group of sophomores in Cody Bellamy, Allen Gribskov, Dylan Pettyjohn and Josh Hill, who are looking to find a starting position.

Two other juniors who are looking to break into the starting role are Blas Elguezabal, who is a probable at first, and David Bates, who is looking at an outfield position. Both could see some time on the mound.

The Mustangs "have been working hard and are looking to get off to a good start and improving on our consistency from last year," according to head coach, Robin Graff. Assisting coach Graff this year will be Tony Pupo.

The next game for the Mustangs will be in Heppner, Saturday, April 4 against the Stanfield Tigers, starting at 11 a.m.

Local soloists compete at district

Five Heppner instrumental music students were among almost 200 students who competed at the Oregon Music Educators Association District VI Solo and Ensemble Contest. The competition was held in La Grande on Saturday, March 7, at Eastern Oregon University.

The Heppner students included four who competed in the Junior division. Daniel Jepsen and Emily Unruh both earned a superior rating of 1 for their clarinet and flute solos respectively. Darren Van Cleave and Meaghan Unruh received a rating of 2 for their performances. Darren played the trumpet and Meaghan the clarinet. Emily, Meaghan, and Darren were all accompanied by Myrna Van Cleave on the piano. Daniel was accompanied by his brother Matt, who played the accompaniment on the bass violin.

In the high school competition, Matt Jepsen received a superior rating of 1 for his trumpet solo and placed first in the trumpet division. He will advance to the Oregon State Solo Competition finals to be held at the University of Oregon in Eugene on April 25. Matt was accompanied by Deborah Wryn of Lone on the piano. He also entered the bass violin competition and received a two-plus rating for that effort.

Competitors were rated with a one-plus as the highest possible score and a five the lowest. There were five different divisions in the contest: instrumental, vocal, strings, piano and percussion.

Emily and Meaghan are the daughters of Loren and Kathryn Unruh. Darren is the son of Tim and Myrna Van Cleave, and Matt and Daniel are the sons of Bill and Nancy Jepsen, all of Heppner.

According to Heppner band director and music teacher Ralph Werner, this was the best showing of local students at the district contest in several years. He says he hopes to have even more music students involved next year.

WCCC ladies plan scramble

Willow Creek Country Club ladies are invited to join a scramble golf game on Tuesday, April 7.

Kickoff breakfast will be at 9 a.m. with a meeting to follow. Play begins at 10 a.m.

The breakfast will be served by the WCCC ladies officers.

Beginners are invited to come and join in the fun," said a club spokesperson.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 78 present for the Senior dinner March 25 with 17 home delivered meals and nine frozen dinners. Peggy Connor helped in the kitchen and with serving. Dishwashing and George Jeffries and Barbara Struthers helped with dishes.

The menu for April 8 will be turkey with dressing, potatoes with gravy, vegetable tray, cranberry salad, rolls and pumpkin pie. Members of the Lutheran Church will serve. Blood pressures will be taken at 11 a.m. The Senior Center board will meet and bingo will be played at 1 p.m.

Twenty-six seniors were served breakfast March 27 and four breakfasts were home delivered.

The menu for breakfast April 3 is biscuits and gravy, hot and cold cereal, fruit, orange juice, milk and coffee. Two tables of pinocle were played Friday.

Betty Green came Tuesday to be the new volunteer receptionist at the Senior Center office. She is greatly appreciated. Welcome aboard Betty.

Jane Rawlins of the Senior Center office staff was in Portland last week for medical attention. We hope she will be back with us in the office soon.

The dining room was beautifully decorated in spring colors and flower arrangements for the RSVP appreciation dinner Monday, March 30. Eva Mabbot of CAPECO and Don Thorndyke of RSVP were over from Pendleton to help with the dinner and give out awards. Music was provided by an ensemble from the Oregon East Symphony. There were 79 volunteers present for the meal. The food was delicious; the cooks and assistants are to be commended for a job well done.

The Red Cross held a blood drawing at the center Tuesday, March 24. The afternoon and evening informational meetings about the Youth Accountability Camp were well attended. Most of those attending were in favor of the camp.
