The MS Walk & Roll, Rain or Shine held in Heppner Saturday, April 18, drew 38 participants and earned over $5,000 to help fight multiple sclerosis.

"We all had fun raising money to help those with MS," said local chairperson, Merilee McDowell. "Come join us next year."

McDowell said that Kinzua Resources gave "a nice donation" to each of their walkers and the walkers also raised money on their own.

Walkers came from Heppner,

Lexington, Ione, Pilot Rock, Hermiston and Pendleton.

Volunteers included: George Nairns, Bob and Aloha DeSpain, John Edmundson, Claudia Hughes, Lindsey Ward, Sandy Matthews, Bill and Danielle McDowell, Greg and Teri Lynch, representing Campus Life, and Florene Robinson and Kay Rene Qualls, representing Klamath First Federal.

The participants enjoyed a lunch of soup and rolls at All Saints Episcopal Church following the walk.

MCCCF community grants awarded

The Morrow County Commission on Children and Families (MCCCF) approved four community development proposals on April 14.

Grants totaling $1,500 were distributed for a "Kids Aware-Beware" program, sponsored by the Oregon Trail Library District; "Moonlight Bowling" program for youth in Heppner; a children's reading program sponsored by the Lone Topic Club; and a teen-parent child care assistance program sponsored by the Boardman Child Development Center.

The Community Development Fund was established for community needs and to leverage other funds and resources into services, advocacy and unique application projects for the children, youth and families of Morrow County. There is approximately $1,000 available each quarter and the maximum grant is $500. Examples of reasonable Community Development Fund requests include seasonal program staff training; one-time events and pilot projects. Home day-care providers may also apply for funds to enhance the quality and availability, but they must be registered by the state or have registration forms submitted to the state for approval at the time of request for funds, said Dar Merrill MCCCF director.

Next quarter's proposals will be reviewed on July 14, during the monthly commission meeting, but must be received by the commission office by June 30 to be considered. Applications are available at the commission office at 120 South Main, Heppner, or by calling 676-9675.
