Tan Hermens a "doer"

To the Editor:
 Many of you will remember here in Grant County in 1996 how families, friends and neighbors truly banded together and "circled our wagons" to help defeat Measure 38 - "Don't Fence Oregon." Tan and Stan Hermens were active in this movement.
 Our family and friends here in Grant County organized the horseback rally from the state fairgrounds to the capitol steps. Tan and Stan came to Salem with their horses to take part and to help in whatever way was needed to make this ride a success. They were a welcome sight that October day.

Tan is a "doer" of her word. She is an action person that will be responsible, rational and accountable for her behavior. She has good morals, is smart, practical, down-to-earth to talk to and has a common sense approach to problems. Tan will go the extra mile and will never give up when trying to solve the problems and needs here in Eastern Oregon.
 Tan Hermens is true to her word, beliefs and her principles. She is deserving of your support for state representative, District 59. Vote May 19 for Tan Hermens.

Cooly earns our vote

To the Editor:
 There is a full slate of candidates for Bob Smith's seat in Congress. Wes Cooley has represented us as Oregon state senator and congressman from this area. His understanding of basic economics helped him to make good decisions for us as our state senator and congressman. I believe he has earned our vote again as a candidate for representative in Congress in the 2nd District.

Dan Brosnan stands out

To the Editor:
 With so many well-qualified candidates running for office, election day will be a difficult time for the voters of Morrow County.
 Dan Brosnan stands out as the best "common sense" person, for county commissioner. He has extensive experience in planning large budgets and then operating within those budgets. He also brings extensive experience working with state agencies that was required of a captain in the Oregon State Police. He has attended most county court meetings since deciding to run for county commissioner. This is because he is truly interested in all of Morrow County.
 I would encourage you to study the candidates for Morrow County Commissioner. Vote for the most qualified, Dan Brosnan.

Stick to issues and vote Hermens

To the Editor:
 In the District 59 representative race, Speaker of the House Lynn Lundquist has a strong challenger in Tan Hermens, a rancher from Kimberly. Tan Hermens' ads are straightforward statements of her positions on issues and her commitment to better government. She speaks only of the issues and of Lundquist's voting record.
 Lynn Lundquist is calling this "negative campaigning" and "phony campaign talk." Job performance should be an issue in campaigns. If Lynn Lundquist feels putting his vote of record on issues in print is negative, whose fault is that? He is the one that voted that way.

 On the other hand, Lundquist has compared himself to a stately horse and Tan Hermens as a blowfly pestering the horse. I hardly think this is a positive, dignified way to be speaking of an opponent.
 The meaningless rhetoric about negative campaigning has been used many times to influence voters. I call this phony campaign talk. I say stick to the issues and voting records. That is what affects us and is the most important.

Wehrli a hard worker

To the Editor,
 I'm writing today to urge people to vote for Patty Wehrli for Morrow County Commissioner. I met Patty just a few weeks ago. She sent me a letter inviting me to have her over. I asked Patty to come and she did.
 I was very impressed with how well she knew the issues in my town and the entire county. I asked Patty to help me with some personal issues I am working on and she did. Patty worked hard to earn my trust, she came to me and followed up when she needed to.

 I don't know anything about the other candidates running. They didn't make the effort Patty did to earn my support. Patty is a hard worker, she knows all the issues very well and will be a great commissioner so I urge everyone in Morrow County to vote for Patty Wehrli on May 19.
