Language immersion class planned

Oregon Pacific Area Health Education Center (AHEC), in cooperation with the Columbia Willamette AHEC in Portland, is sponsoring a Spanish language immersion program, "Healthcare en Espanol." The program is available to almost any healthcare professional, including physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, midwives, nurses, medical receptionists and dental professionals.

Participants selected will spend two weeks this June or July living with a Spanish-speaking family while working at a migrant community health clinic. Living expenses during the immersion program will be reimbursed to the families by the AHEC. Funds are available to pay other expenses related to the professional leaving their local workplace.

It is recommended that applicants have an intermediate level of Spanish. Those who have completed the AHEC-sponsored "Basic and Building on Basic Spanish for Healthcare Professionals" courses may apply.

Applications for this program are due Monday, June 15. Those interested in applying should contact Carole Smith at Northeast Oregon AHEC, (541) 962-3423.
