Sullivan selected as Girl's State delegate

Niki Sullivan
Niki Sullivan of Ione has been selected as an American Legion Girls State delegate. Girls State, a youth seminar on Americanism and citizenship, will be held next year June 14-21. Delegates to Girls' State organize their own cities and counties, hold elections and conduct other business during the week-long seminar.

Niki is the 17-year-old daughter of Brian and Lorie Sullivan of Ione. She has been class president, concession chairman, participated in volleyball, basketball and tennis, was a member of the Future Business Leaders of America, National Honor Society, Letter Club, Drama Club and the Positive Action Committee at Ione High School. She is also a member of the Ione Youth Group and has participated in their annual trip to Portland to help the homeless.

Niki is the second in her family to attend Girls State. Her sister Jenny was selected last year.

Willow Creek Baptist plans activities

Willow Creek Baptist Church will have their summer vacation Bible school Monday through Friday, July 20-24. All children ages three through sixth-grade are invited to the city park on Main Street in Heppner from 9 a.m. to noon for games, Bible stories, crafts, snacks and "a bunch of fun," says Willow Creek Baptist Pastor Brent Waldrep.

Willow Creek Baptist invites all youth in sixth through 12th grade for lunch and games on the park on Thursday, July 23, from 12:30-2 p.m.

The communities along Willow Creek are invited to attend a concert in the park on Friday, July 24, from 6:30-8 p.m. "The Matt Jacobsen Band" from Portland will play a variety of tunes including Irish music and jazz. Those planning to attend are asked to bring their own lawn chairs or blankets to the concert. Refreshments will be provided.

Spiritual renewal services will be held each evening, July 19-23, at 7 p.m. "These services are designed to encourage and teach how the reality of God is relevant to everyday life," said Pastor Waldrep. Services Sunday through Wednesday and on Thursday will be held at the Seventh-day Adventist building, 560 N. Minor. "Quality" child care will be provided. The Wednesday evening lakeside service will be at the Willow Creek Lake boat ramp/viewpoint upper section at 7 p.m.

Men are invited to join in a men's lunch Bible study and discussion "aimed at helping men lead lives of integrity and character" on Friday, July 24, upstairs at Kate's at noon.

For more information, call Brent Waldrep, 676-5156.

The Morrow County Creative Arts and Crafts Club will seek ideas from its members concerning the fair booth when they next meet on Thursday, July 23.

The club will get together at 1 p.m. at Kate's for lunch and a short meeting and plans for the fair booth will follow.

Guests are welcome to attend.

Ione Class of 1968 plans reunion

The Ione High School class of 1968 has planned their 30th year reunion at Beecher's Restaurant in Ione on Saturday, July 25, at 8 p.m.

The class invites members and spouses of the IHS Class of '67 to join them.

Those attending are asked to RSVP to Willa Johnson, (503) 375-2085 as soon as possible.

Holly Rebekah hold meeting

By Delpha Jones

Holly Rebekah Lodge met recently for the last meeting until September. They held a potluck dinner in the park and a shower for the dining room. Many useful things were received, as well as money. New curtains have been purchased and a new hot water heater is to be installed soon.
