Princess follows in the footsteps of rodeo family

Princess Lindsey Ward
 Eyes: Blue
 Hair: Blonde
 Age: 16 years old,
 a sophomore at HHS
 Parents:
 Jim and Susie Ward
 Activities:
 4-H cooking, beef and sheep, high school volleyball, basketball and golf

Princess Lindsey was a member of the Heppner High Golf Team

Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo Princess Lindsey Ward follows in the footsteps of family members who have been active in fair and rodeo.

Lindsey, a pretty blonde with blue eyes that twinkle with a hint of mischief, will be a sophomore at Heppner High School this fall. The 16-year-old lives with her parents, Jim and Susie Ward, and 14-year-old sister Ashley on the family ranch. Her grandparents are Ray and Norma French, Heppner, Joy Salter, Athena, and Bill Ward, Letha, Idaho.

Lindsey's mom was Morrow County Fair and Rodeo princess in 1970 and queen in 1972. Her aunt, Verina French Schiller, who is also Queen Maci Childers' aunt by marriage, was princess in 1966 and queen in 1967. Lindsey's dad has competed in calf roping and team roping and now steer ropes. Granddad Bill was also a calf roper, team roper and steer roper. Granddad Ray, who is a Morrow County Commissioner, served many years on the rodeo board in the 1960s and also spent around 10 years flagging the timed events. Sister Ashley, who will be an eighth-grader at Heppner Junior High School this fall, is a pennant bearer this year. Ashley has competed in Wranglers riding club and won the Pee Wee barrels competition last year in Heppner.

In addition to participating in 4-H cooking, beef and sheep, the 5'8" princess enjoys volleyball, basketball and golf at Heppner High School. She is also a member of OSSOM, the Wildhorse Club and is on the honor roll at HHS. She has been a member of Wranglers for around three years and the Mustangers club out of Pendleton since she was a little girl.

Lindsey rides her 12-year-old quarterhorse, "Bravo", in fair and rodeo events. "He's just really friendly," says Lindsey. "He's really been good about all the events, but he's getting a little tired of being washed. And I'm getting tired of washing him," laughs Lindsey. Bravo also pinch hits as Lindsey's dad's back-up horse.

Lindsey says it's hard to pick

just one favorite experience since her reign as princess, but says she had a lot of fun at the track at Waitsburg. What she has enjoyed most of all, says Princess Lindsey, is spending time with Queen Maci Childers and Princess Bobbie Rankin. "I'm really looking forward to our own fair and rodeo," adds Lindsey. "It's going to be a really hectic week, but I'm ready for it."
