Two new channels added to Heppner TV

Two new channels are being added to the basic service on Heppner T.V. Inc.'s channel lineup. The History Channel is now on Channel 27 with FOX Sports Northwest to be added as soon as the equipment arrives.

The History Channel delves into the past with a full slate of historical documentaries, movies and mini-series, with facts, rare footage and original points of view. A wide range of original and acquired U.S., world, and social history programming is featured to provide viewers with "All of History. All in one Place."

FOX Sports Northwest offers the region's most complete coverage of professional, collegiate and high school sporting events, said a Heppner T.V. spokesperson. In addition to FOX Sports Northwest originated programming, the network provides "the most comprehensive sports news coverage in the Northwest". The channel is committed to provide home team coverage of professional and collegiate sports such as baseball, basketball and football, as well as event series, lifestyle programs, Olympic sports, special events and news updates, they said. When launched, FOX Sports NW will be found on Channel 2

"The Heppner T.V. Inc. board of directors hope the added channels will enhance the subscribers' viewing quality. They will continue to provide the most popular viewed networks for the subscribers' entertainment," they said.

Day Care requests check ins

Heppner Day Care is requesting that people call and check in ahead of time before bringing in their child to make sure a space is open. They also ask that parents call them if their child will not attend a day. This helps them in staffing the appropriate number of help.

The new rates for the Heppner Day Care are $2 an hour for the first child and $1.50 an hour for each additional child.
