-- Let's not forget the "Harvest Festival" this Saturday, Aug. 29, in Lexington. The festivities will start at 1 p.m. with a horse-shoe pitching contest. The entry fee for each team will be $5, to be divided by the winners. A dunk tank is planned and everyone is invited to see who will be dunked. A spaghetti supper at $5 per plate can be enjoyed while listening and dancing at the street dance. Music will be by the Crosswinds, starting at 4 p.m. Come on out and support Lexington in the first Harvest Festival. Perhaps this can become a yearly event.

-- Visitors at the C.C. Jones Ranch to attend the O'Brien-Jones wedding were daughter Charlene Whitney, Portland, and granddaughter Becky Whitney, Aloha, Desiree and Carolyn Lovelace from Ontario, and John Futala of Vancouver, WA.

-- John and Kathy Tellechea have returned from a vacation in the Steins Mountains.

-- Krystal Temple is proud of her ribbons won at the Morrow County Fair when she and her Australian shepherd dog, Sheila, won the dog obedience and showmanship award. This is her first year of competition at the fair. The 4-H dog club has about 20 members, with seven taking part in the fair.

-- Bill and Bonnie Klinger of Portland were callers at the home of his mother and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Padberg.
