Lexington News

By Delpha Jones

The "Harvest Day" celebration held in Lexington recently was well attended.

The celebration included a horse shoe pitching contest, roping of a mechanical bull (which could kick hard) a hay bale with horns, a street dance and lots of visiting by friends and relatives. Dinner consisted of spaghetti, green salad and garlic bread, all you could eat. Let's keep in mind of the next year's celebration and plan to attend.

Dale Breeding and friend of Vancouver, WA were Lexington callers Saturday.

Visitors at the home of Gene and Chirella Wallace recently were her mother Anna Smith and a sister and son Peggy and Ryan Balkman from Randolph, NY. They were met in Portland by Missy Wallace and were taken back to the plane by Chirella. They visited The Dalles interpretive center, Cascade Locks and other points.

The Way reunion held Sunday at the Lexington Grange Hall was well attended. A bountiful dinner and visiting were greatly enjoyed.

Lexington Holly Rebekah Lodge met Thursday at the friendship park for the first meeting of the fall. The meeting was presided over by the Noble Grand Kathy Clark. Plans were made for the McNary district meeting later this month in Pendleton. Luella Taylor was presented her seal for the unwritten work. The card party will be the second Saturday in October.

Lexington Grange will meet the third Monday in September.

Edgar and Frances Murty are spending some time with their family in John Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Taylor had a visit from their son, Bob, from Baker City on Sunday.

Visitors at the Ray Marten home for the Way reunion were Jim and Cathy Marten and family.

Visitor at the Way reunion was Kenneth Marshall, a former resident of Lexington who came with his son Bud.

Wow, we made it through another fair. With so much good help, Jan and I were not even sure we were needed to help run the 4-H Snack Shack.

To start each day off, we had Jim Boor, Tim Rankin, Bill McKinney, Doug Drake and Ken Bailey. If you never ate breakfast at the fair, you really missed out. The food was great and the entertainment was even better! Thanks so much you guys.

Our day managers were also super! We would like to thank Janet Greenup, Shelly Key, Runnisha McNamee and Glaya Baker for all their hard work. You gals put a great team together for each day.

Thank you also to everyone who worked in the Snack Shack; your help was greatly appreciated. Our 4-Hers are lucky to have such supportive parents. We are looking forward to next year!

Thanks again,
Jan Coe and Pam Piper
