

Lundells celebrate 60th anniversary

Raymond and Charlotte Lundell, 1938

Friends and relatives of Raymond and Charlotte Lundell gathered recently at the Eugene Red Lion Inn to celebrate the Lundells' 60th wedding anniversary.

The couple was married on October 6, 1938, in Vancouver, Washington.

The occasion was hosted by their daughters, Cheryle Foskett of Moraga, California, and Karen Stack of Chester, Montana.

An array of pictures and slides gave the group an overview of the family history and a chance to reminisce about many fond memories from the past.

Those in attendance were Chris Foskett of Redondo Beach, California; Janelle Foskett of San Luis Obispo, California; Sean and Tara Stack of Eagle, Idaho; Dara and Kevin Coates and sons, Trevor and Kennedy, of Great Falls, Montana; Francis Stack of Chester, Montana; Ernie and Mary Jean McCabe of Heppner; Wally and Doreen Lentil of Portland; Ron McCabe of Gresham; Jack and Mary McCabe of Crooked River Ranch; Helen Pettyjohn, Ruth McCabe, Helen Crawford, Katherine Lindstrom, Dianna and Shawn Hams, Ashley and Meghan McCabe, and Donna and Roland Bergstrom, all of Ione; Louis and Betty Carlson, Heppner; Bob and Mildred Hope of Eugene; Paul and Rikka Tews of The Dalles; and Linda Vincent and Marilyn and Keith Peck of Portland.

After their marriage in 1938, Raymond and Charlotte lived in the Gooseberry area, where they had contracted to drive the school bus from Gooseberry to the Ione school. They drove the route for four years, during which Raymond decided to get into wheat farming in the area. He continued to farm his father's land and adjacent properties for the next 30 years. Most of this time, they lived on the Ivar Nelson place where they raised their two daughters. Both Charlotte and Ray were involved in the many activities of the Ione schools, Valby Lutheran church and the community.

In 1965, the Lundells moved from the ranch to Eugene, where Raymond worked as a safety compliance officer for the state of Oregon. He retired in 1984.

The couple have six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. "Their home has been the center of love and activity for family and friends alike throughout the years."

Book mobile receives grant

The Oregon Trail Library District has proposed a state-of-the-art bookmobile for Boardman, Heppner and surrounding communities, according to director Tony Chavez.

The Neighborhood Reader Wagon, a 35-foot bookmobile in a fifth-wheel configuration with a capacity for approximately 4,000 volumes, on-board Internet access and a display case for museum exhibits, has received support from a federal grant in the amount of $88,036.

The award is contingent upon community support for operating funds.

The proposed Reader Wagon would extend library services to schools, senior centers, trailer courts, stores, parks and other locations, said Chavez.

People who reside in surrounding communities outside district boundaries would be able to access the bookmobile by supporting a $25 per year fee or by petitioning to join the district.

Voters will have an opportunity to decide on the bookmobile on November 3, Chavez said.
