Cardinals punish Condon Demons

By Diana McElligott and Jaysi Bennetto

The Ione Middle School Volleyball team took on the Condon Demons at Ione Oct. 16 and defeated the Demons in two short games, 15-2, 15-2.

"This was the best offensive and defensive game, we had all year," commented player Tracy Griffith.

The Cards' offensive game was terrific. Diana McElligott and Griffith dominated the net, while Jaysi Bennetto and Natalie McElligott supported them in the back row. Setters Caitlin Orem and Meghan McCabe dished six assists each. N. McElligott and D. McElligott lead the Cards at the service line with 11 and nine points respectively.

Next up for the IMS Cardinals was a Friday game against the Heppner Ponies at Heppner, Oct. 22.

County Court meeting changed

Due to the observance of the Veteran's Day holiday, the Morrow County Court will not meet on its regularly scheduled court date of Wednesday, November 11, but will meet on Thursday, November 12, instead, at 9 a.m. in Irrigon.

Injuries handicap IMS in game with Condon

By Mike Radie

Ione Middle School lost the game and three key players in the game against Condon Friday afternoon.

Ione was hit very hard by the injuries to three key players of the team, Cayle Krebs, who dislocated his knee, Koby Rea, who sprained his ankle, and Andrew Reitmann, who cracked his ribs.

It all started with an early touchdown by the Blue Devils. The Cardinals were easily stopped offensively by the strong line and pass defense. The Blue Devils just kept on pounding the Cardinals. The Blue Devils managed to get 42 points, while the Cardinals made only 14 points.

Mike Radie scored one of the touchdowns and made a two-point conversion. Radie also threw two completed passes to fullback Cameron Krebs.

Koby Rea will return for their next game which will be played against Heppner at Heppner.

Mustangs defeats Tiger-Scots for perfect season

By Molly Rhea

The Mustang varsity volleyball team completed their league play in Athena, on Tuesday, October 27, defeating the Tiger-Scots to finish the regular season with a perfect 12-0 Columbia Basin Conference record. Although the Weston-McEwen team made a run on the Mustangs, Heppner remained in control of the game to win in two, 15-13, 15-10.

Game one was close throughout, with the score tied at three, seven, eight, 12 and 13, before the Mustangs finally put it away with two aces by Amber Peck. Heppner was able to consistently mount offensive attacks, but the Tiger-Scots played tough defense to dig up plenty of hits.

In game two the Mustangs pulled out to a 6-1 point lead only to allow the Tiger-Scots to come scrambling back to tie it up at point seven, then again at eight. With the score knotted at eight, Peck went back to serve the Mustangs to a five-point lead, 13-8, before giving it up to the net. The Tiger-Scots' next server added two more points to their total before the Mustangs went ahead and put the final two points in the book to take the match.

The junior varsity Mustangs won their final match of the season easily, defeating the Tiger-Scots 15-4, 15-5. This team has played tough all year, finishing 14-1, losing only their first match at LaGrande, and taking most of their matches in two games. They also won their own junior varsity tournament in September.

The JV team was made up of 12 juniors and one sophomore, and will provide the Mustangs with a strong core for next year's varsity squad.

The Heppner Cs lost their match with Weston-McEwen, 6-15, 15-4, 6-15, to end the year 10-5. The C 12 were evenly split with six sophomores and six freshmen that show potential for future Mustang teams.

Injuries plague Ione in loss to Heppner

By Cayle Krebs and Mike Radie

Ione struggled throughout the game Friday afternoon against Heppner at Heppner due to the loss of three starting eighth graders due to injuries, Cayle Krebs (torn ligament in knee), Andrew Rietmann (cracked ribs) and Koby Rea (sprained ankle).

The started off with a fumbled kickoff return picked up by a Pony. This occurred three straight kickoffs, each leading to Pony touchdowns.

When Ione finally got to play a little offense, Mike Radie broke through the line and ran 45 yards to find the end zone.

Billy Gates, second in sacks, behind Cayle Krebs, made the interception and ran 15 yards before he was brought down. Radie stopped a breakaway touchdown by running 40 yards to catch the galloping Pony.

In the last few seconds Ione was 45'd with a final score of 51-6.

This was the final game for the Ione Cardinals. The Cards finished the season with a three and three record. "It was a good season," said Coach Dean Robinson

Middle School defeats Heppner

By Caitlin Orem and Jaysi Bennetto

The Ione Middle School girls had a successful volleyball match against the Heppner Ponies on Friday, Oct. 23, at Heppner.

The first game the Cardinals fell hard, losing 11-15. The second game the Cardinals pulled it together and beat back the Ponies, 15-12. In the third game both teams gave it their all, but it ended as Ione pulled ahead and won, 15-10.

Point leaders were Natalie McElligott with 10 points, Caitlin Orem with seven points, and Diana McElligott with six.

"It was one of the tougher games of the season, but we came out with a victory," said Jaysi Bennetto.
