St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

Fifty-nine people over age 60 and nine under 60 were present for the senior Thanksgiving dinner Nov. 18. Members of the Lutheran Church served. Members of the United Methodist Church will serve on Dec. 2.

Thirty-four people over 60 and four under attended the Thursday lunch. The menus for the senior dinners in December are not available at this time. Thursday lunches will not be held in Dec. Sue Cooper, the Thursday cook, is recuperating from surgery. We miss her and wish her a speedy recovery. Ruby Speers is filling in for her at the Wednesday meals and doing frozen meals.

Bingo was played Friday night. Bingo will be played Friday, Dec. 27, at 7 p.m.

Two tables of pinocle were in play Tuesday and Thursday. The seniors were saddened by the death of Sandi Armtt. There will be a memorial service for her at the Senior Center Saturday, Dec. 5. We extend deepest sympathy to her family.

Mills jumps in front

Larry Mills has moved up to take over sole position of first place in the GT football contest, marking the first time Les Payne has not been in the number one position.

Other than Mills most of the pickers did not have a very accurate week.

Health screening slated at BMCC

The Blue Mountain Community College Health and Physical Education Department is sponsoring a blood screening on Wednesday, Dec. 2, from 7-11 a.m. in the Mac Center Mezzanine.

The screening will include the following options:

-Cholesterol, $7, a single test that provides a good reference number.

-Cardiac risk panel, $13, a panel that includes: cholesterol, HDL, LDL, VLDL, triglycerides, and a cholesterol/ HDL ratio. It provides a total cholesterol, as well as the individual components, and offers more specific information.

-Health Fair profile and cardiac risk panel, $18, includes the cardiac risk panel and 16 other blood chemistry tests. Glucose, liver enzymes, protein, and electrolyte levels are also part of this panel.

Staff from the P.E. department note it is preferable to fast for 12 hours prior to the collection of your blood. A follow up educational presentation with Dr. Larry Adams will be held on Friday, Dec. 16, from 11 a.m. to 12 noon in P148. Those interested are asked to make appointments with Tammie Parker, 278-5896.
