The Right Reverend Rusty Kimsey, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Oregon and the Reverend Paul Swanson, bishop of the Oregon Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, will lead worship which will include Holy Communion. Everyone is invited to worship and participate in the Lord's Supper.

An open invitation is extended to the community to join them at a potluck dinner immediately following worship. Ione Booster Club meets

The Ione Booster Club met Monday, December 7, at the Ione High School library. Nineteen members were present.

Dean Robinson reported on gym improvements. The Culver sign has been taken down and the Wasco sign moved. The wires from the old sound system have been removed.

President Debbie Raidie reported that a new flag for the state championship track team would cost $272 to make at Bob and Jan's Signs. A new district board would cost $280. Members will research other options, including making their own board and hiring someone to do the lettering. A new state volleyball bracket sign will probably also have to be made.

Harold Reitmann is making new championship boards for the signs at the edge of town.

John Ferguson and Brandi Brantley, under the supervision of Robinson, are making a new sports schedule poster. They hope to make the project more profitable. They will begin selling ads and arranging the poster. The club was supportive of the project.

Raidie will have the volleyball video completed by the end of January.

The coaches are creating a tape room next to the boys' locker room. The janitor's room will be used, with the janitors moving to coach Dana Heideman's old office. Coach Dennis Stefani requested help tearing down the old closet walls. It was suggested the athletes needing to earn money for pay-to-play be hired by the club to work on that project.

The club heard reports from committees and made final arrangements for the upcoming basketball tournament.

The next meeting of Ione Booster Club will be January 4 at 7 p.m. at the high school library.
