

New stage constructed at lone amphitheatre

Bucknum's Tavern opens in time for St. Patrick's weekend with Patty Dean and John Gochnauer

The Corbin Family (L-R), Tina, Linda and Terry, purchase and renovate Heppner bowling alley

Kay and Mike Proctor sell Green Feed to the Helfrecht family

Jerry Healy named Columbia Basin Electric Coop manager

Pat Hentges, longtime teacher, retires from Heppner Elementary School

lone High School's Camie Burrig takes first place in three events in state 1A track meet

Dan Brosnan elected Morrow County Commissioner

Chris Meyer selected as Morrow County Grain Growers general manager

Dale Conklin retires as teacher and coach at Heppner High School, retains athletic director position

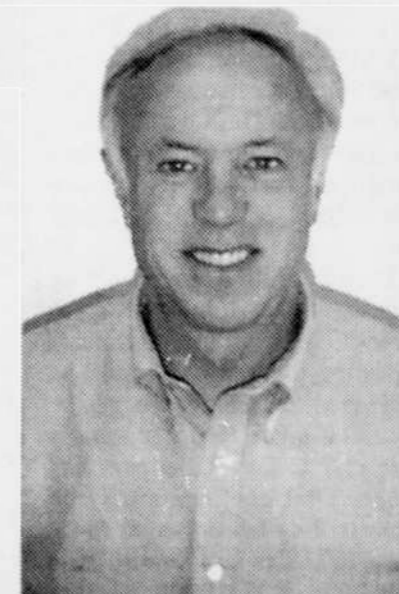

Heppner Bookworm Club members celebrate the 70th anniversary of the club

Gary and Diane Lent are new owners of R Js in Lexington

Heppner City Manager Gary Marks resigns position to take job as North Bend city manager; he leaves position under fire for terminating the North Bend Police chief

Gerald Breazeale named Heppner city manager

The lone Volleyball team takes the state 1A championship

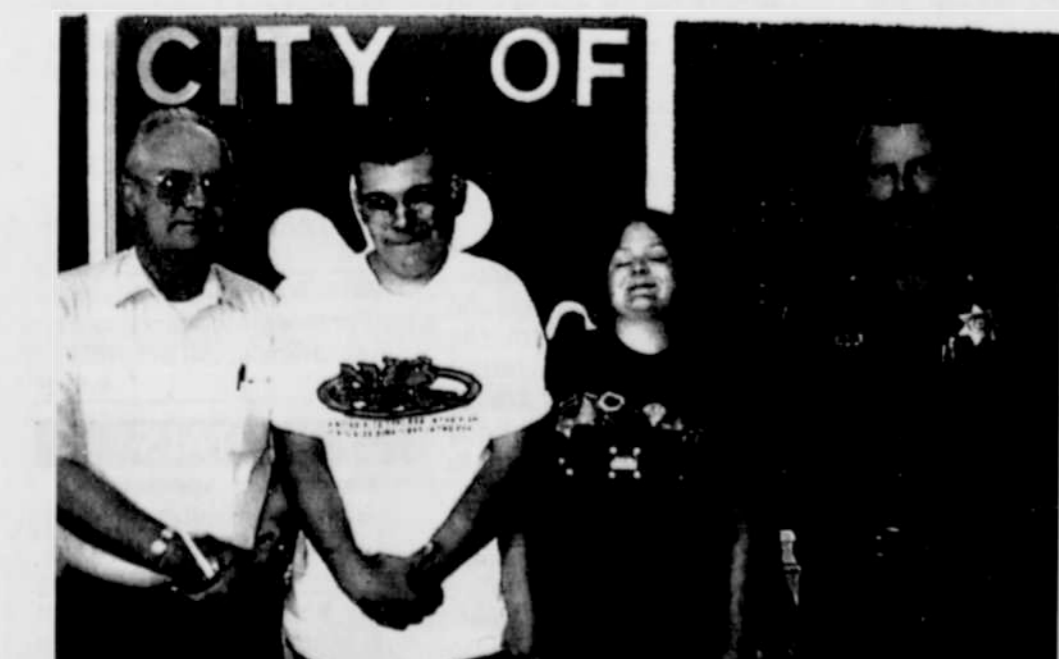

Barbara Hayes retires as Heppner High School counselor

Dr. Clyde Burnham joins Morrow County Health District staff

Verlin Denton named Morrow County Sheriff

Fred Toombs (L) Ross VanEtta and Heppner Police Officer Merle Cowett (R) save Terri Hendricks from drowning in Willow Creek

Incoming Morrow County District Attorney David C. Allen is sworn in by Morrow County Clerk Barbara Bloodworth. Allen narrowly defeated incumbent Earl R. Woods, Jr.

New addition to back of present bank building