Margery E. Robinson

Margery E. Robinson, 72, of Boardman, died Tuesday, December 22, 1998, at St. Vincent Hospital in Portland.

Disposition was by cremation. A celebration of life gathering will be held at the Dodge City Inn in Boardman January 8, 1999, at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Robinson was born January 16, 1926, at Hammond, Indiana.

She married Richard Baldwin and the couple moved to the Northwest where Mr. Baldwin was employed by the Forest Service. They lived at a number of ranger stations in Montana and Idaho. The couple later divorced.

She later married Jay H. Robinson. The couple came from Missoula, Montana, to Boardman. Mrs. Robinson enjoyed playing cards, knitting, dancing, traveling and entertaining.

Survivors include her husband, Jay H. Robinson, at the home; children, Susan Baldwin of Prescott, Arizona; Neal Baldwin of Rock Springs, Wyoming; and Rex Baldwin of Rawlins, Wyoming; two grandsons; her mother, Myrtle Eisele of Hermiston; stepdaughter, Judy Brown, and stepson, David Robinson; stepgrandchildren and one great-grandson.

Alena Ann Anderson

Alena Ann Anderson, 92, formerly of Heppner, died Wednesday, Dec. 30, 1998, at the Shepherd Care center at Tualatin.

Graveside service and interment was Tuesday, January 5, 1999, at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery with Pastor Andrew Johnson officiating.

Alena Ann Anderson was born to Lawrence and Laura Etta (Scott) Redding on September 29, 1906, on the family homestead near Lexington.

The family moved to Missouri in 1912 to assist her grandparents on their farm near the Osage River. Upon returning to Oregon in 1915, they bought a farm at Eightmile and farmed there for many years.

She graduated from Heppner High School and attended Oregon Normal School (now Western Oregon University) to earn a teaching degree. She taught at Hail Ridge, Athena, Eightmile, Rocky Bluff, Gooseberry and Twin Pine on Rhea Creek.

On December 25, 1934, she married Harold E. Anderson. They farmed in the Ione and Eightmile areas until his death in 1944. She sold the farm and moved to Heppner with her three daughters. In 1950, she married Ervin Anderson. She kept books for their business, Anderson's Builders Supply in Heppner until they sold the business.

In 1965, she went to Portland State University to renew her teaching certificate. She taught in the Heppner Elementary School until her retirement in 1972.

Ervin died in 1983. In 1988, Alena sold her home and moved to Hillsboro, where she lived until moving to Tualatin about one and a half years ago.

She was a Campfire Girl leader for many years. She volunteered for many years at the Senior Citizens Center and enjoyed many summers with her grandchildren.

Survivors include daughters, Dee Erdmann and husband Jim of Aumsville, Nancy McLennan and husband Phil of Hillsboro and Carol Porter of Concord, New Hampshire; one brother, Boyd Redding and wife Lois of Las Vegas, Nevada; six grandchildren, Lisa, Shelly, and Alison Parent, Suzanne Gehring, and Richard and Cory Porter; three great-grandchildren, Jake Gehring, Hayley Ney, and Leah Parent-Korsness; three nieces and two nephews; and her students, those who have come to know and appreciate her where she has lived and worked.

Arrangements were in care of Attrell's Sherwood Funeral Chapel, a Golden Rule funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Pioneer Memorial Hospital, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, Oregon 97836.

Wade B. Bothwell

Wade B. Bothwell, 74, of Heppner, died Sunday, January 3, 1999, at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Portland.

The funeral will be 11 a.m. Thursday, January 7, 1999, at the Heppner Elks Lodge. Concluding service and burial will follow at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Mr. Bothwell was born December 28, 1924, at Heppner, to Bruce and Vera Cowins Bothwell. He grew up in Heppner and attended local schools, graduating from Heppner High School in 1943.

He served in the U.S. Army Medical Corps from 1943 until 1946. Following his discharge, he attended Monmouth Normal School for two years before returning to Heppner.

For many years, Mr. Bothwell traveled to Montana with his father to do sheep shearing. He was a carpenter by trade and helped build a number of houses in Heppner. He had also worked as a custodian at Heppner High School.

Mr. Bothwell enjoyed the outdoors, whether hunting or photography. He also enjoyed woodcarving.

Survivors include sisters, Joanne Kain of Pendleton, and Wilma Marlatt of Heppner. He was preceded in death by his parents, and a sister, Lorraine Hams.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, Oregon Division, 0330 S.W. Curry, Portland, OR 97201. Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in charge of arrangements.

Pilot Rock outscores Ione Cardinals

The Ione Cardinals took on the Pilot Rock Rockets on January 2. Pilot Rock outscores Ione 51-22.

The Lady Cardinals were down two members at the end of the game with Salli McElligott fouling out early in the third quarter and Jeanette Brantley fouling out in the fourth quarter. Nonnee Walters wouldn't give up the game without a fight and made a jumper with three seconds left in the game.

Cyndi Heagy led Cardinal scoring with eight points. Kristina Powell wreaked havoc on the boards, leading the Cardinals in rebounds. Jeanette Brantley had numerous rebounds and also had five steals. Nonnee Walters and Sybil Krebs kept the Rockets on their toes; each had six steals.

Against Wallowa, the Mustangs took a 10-7 lead after the first quarter but fell behind at halftime, 25-22. The Cougars still led 34-32 going into the fourth quarter but the Mustangs outscored Wallowa 20-6 in the fourth to win going away 52-40.

The Mustangs made 17 of 23 free throws for the game. Tim Dickenson made nine of 12 free throws and finished with 19 points and 13 rebounds. Craig Scott scored 15 points and Casey Evans finished with eight points. Derek Gunderson dished out four assists and hit a three-pointer. Ryan Matteson had six steals.

Statistics:
Wallowa: 7-18-9-6-40
Heppner: 10-12-10-20-52
Heppner: Dickenson 59-12-19; Scott 55-7-15; Evans 4-0-0-8; Jared Eckman 1-2-2-4; Matteson 1-1-2-3; Gunderson 1-0-0-3; Blake Knowles; Joe Papineau; Shane Matheny; Riley Tingue. 17-17-23-52. Three-pointers: Gunderson.

Evans got the Mustangs going against Stanfield with a steal and lay-in, but the Tigers' Corey Sherman came right back with a three-pointer to give Stanfield an early 3-2 lead. The Mustangs came right back on a field goal by Scott and a three-pointer by Evans, a free throw by Dickenson and a basket by Jared Eckman gave the Mustangs a 10-3 lead. The Tigers outscored Heppner 8-1 for the rest of the quarter to tie the game at 11-11 after one.

The Tigers outscored the Mustangs 9-8 in the second to take a 20-19 lead at halftime.

Both teams traded baskets to start the third quarter and Matteson and Dickenson each hit a free throw to give the Mustangs their last lead of the game at 25-14. Sherman came back to hit a three-pointer as the Tigers went on a 9-2 run. Matteson hit a three-pointer to cut the lead to 34-30 at the end of the third quarter.

The Mustangs then went cold. A basket by Evans with 2:55 left cut the Stanfield lead to 40-32. Heppner didn't score again until Scott made a basket in the final minute, as Stanfield outscored Heppner 14-4 in the fourth quarter. The Tigers made 10 of 14 free throws in the quarter.

Evans led the Mustangs with nine points. Scott scored eight and Eckman, six.

Dickenson was named to the All-Tournament Team.

The Mustangs non-league record was 4-2 after the tournament.
