BMCC, CAPECO to offer corrections course

Blue Mountain Community College, Community Action Program East Central Oregon and the Oregon Department of Corrections are again teaming together to offer "Careers in the Oregon Department of Corrections" (CODOC).

CODOC is a short-term training opportunity to be held in Pendleton at the Umatilla County Criminal Justice Center (new county jail). The intent of the training is to prepare participants for formal application for employment with the Department of Corrections.

The focus is general and is for persons interested in positions in any capacity, including food service, maintenance, medical service, clerical or corrections officers.

The training will begin on Monday, June 7, and end on July 9. Classes meet Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. - 3 p.m. with a lunch break.

The application process begins immediately and must be completed by May 24. Participants must be at least 21 years of age and are expected to complete the following: a CODOC application; an ASSET placement test at BMCC's Pendleton campus (the test is offered on Monday or Thursday at 9 a.m. and there is a $10 testing fee); a drug screening test; a background check; and confirmation of a high school diploma or GED certificate. Admission to the program will include an orientation/interview with a panel of correctional personnel.

Included with the training is integrated work experience. The work experience is held in a "secure correctional setting". Students will have direct inmate contact under supervision of correctional staff as assigned at area facilities.

Cost for the five week program is $555 and students who successfully complete the program will receive a Blue Mountain Community College certificate of completion.

Area residents who are interested in attending may contact the Advising and Testing Center at BMCC, 541-278-5936 or 541-278-5930.
