Holly Rebekah hosts Rebekah Assembly officials

By Delpha Jones

Holly Rebekah Lodge recently hosted the vice president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, Joyce Lynn, and her husband, past grand master of the Oddfellows of Oregon.

At the meeting the vice grand installed the officers for the coming year, with her husband acting as installing marshal.

Following the regular meeting, vice president Joyce Lynn spoke about the various projects of the Oddfellows and Rebekahs, such as the U.N Pilgrimage; Friendship Fund; eye bank research; and community services. She congratulated Holly on keeping up the hall, which is available for community affairs, and their support of the Oddfellows home in Portland.

Lynn said the glass case donated to the hall for pictures and keepsakes was interesting to her and her husband. Keepsakes include official jewelry, pictures, roll calls back from the organization's first years, costume jewelry and pictures of past state officers and assemblies.

The auction of Rebekah dishes and plates was enjoyed, with Marlene Grey as auctioneer.

Preceding the meeting, a salad dinner was enjoyed at RJ's Restaurant.
