Categorical Exclusion
Long Prairie Aspen
Enhancement
And
Wheeler Aspen Enhancement
Wheeler County, Oregon
USDA Forest Service
Umatilla National Forest
Heppner Ranger District

On June 18, 1999, Heppner District Ranger, Delanne Ferguson, made a decision to implement the Long Prairie and
Projects on the Heppner Ranger District. These projects are designed to protect and improve the remnant stands of aspen remaining in the Long Prairie area. Buck and pole or woven wire fences will be constructed to protect the stands from cattle, elk, and deer, allowing regeneration to survive and grow large enough that browsing by ungulates would no longer threaten the stands. Other management activities may include prescribed burning, transplanting of root suckers, mechanical root stimulation, or cutting/girdling of small encroaching conifers.

The Decision Memo and associated project file are available upon request at the Heppner Ranger District, P.O.

Box 7, Heppner, OR 97836. For further information, contact Charlene Bucha Gentry, (541)

CARD OF THANKS

I've written this thank you/acknowledgment in my head for three weeks. It is past time for me to put it on paper for print. Our last year has been a very trying one to say the least, but without the love, help and support of some very special people, it would have been insurmountable. As you all know, Jan. 9th, we were told that our livelihood of 34 years was coming to an end.
To get on with life, for ten weeks this spring, we attended the CODOC classes so Raymond could be employed at the new correctional facility in Umatilla, if and when need be. This gave both of us about a 19-hour day.

At HHS, to both staff and our super kids, you were so supportive. I couldn't have endured it without you. Father Condon, your continued prayers for all the workers never wavered or ceased.
You are so special. Janice Paustian, thank you for never giving up. You have continued to call and check on us when there was never anyone to answer your calls. Your messages made long days much shorter. Glenna and Wayne Rollis, you too, continued to check on us with no response.
Mort, (Marti Mitchell) whenever my rope got just too short, you were always there with a broad shoulder and lots of Kleenex.
Grandkids, we missed everything you did this spring. Nana and Papa are really sorry. Thank you for understanding, just the same. Dana and Lana, you've been ignored, you've fed dad and helped take care of him. Thank you for being so understanding and hanging in there. DeRina, I can promise you, without your feeding me through the class time, helping Dad with the reports, and to study for tests, neither of us could have made it.
Believe me Honey, you more than paid us back for anything we did for you after your wreck.
Son-in-laws, you too, have been so supportive and we truly appreciate it. Thank you, to all of you, who showed continual support and encouragement.

As the school year drew to a close, you, the senior class, gave me the opportunity to go with you on your senior trip. What a refreshing break it was. I would just like to reiterate what Mr. & Mrs. Beck said you really are a neat bunch of kids. Thanks for taking me with you. You truly are a very special group of young people.

In addition to the blessings our community has extended to us, I would like to contribute my thoughts to the families of our recent tragedy. Robin Baker stated so very well in last week's paper, "There but for the Grace of God go I." Never truer words were ever spoken. How many of us can honestly say at some point of our childhood, that we weren't in the kids' same shoes right before the tragedy occurred.

None of us live in a glass house consequently, we must not throw stones. This community is not only blessed with so many terrific adults but also with super kids. If any of you have any doubts, I challenge you to spend some time with our youth. See for yourselves first hand. Only God knows why these two were chosen to leave us. I can't find the words that seem to adequately express what it would take to give comfort. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers and our support is always with you.

In closing, I would like to say a very special thank you to everyone. Of all the places in the world, there is no better place to live than a small community. It ceases to amaze me how much compassion and caring come forth when needed.

Thank you so very much & God Bless you all,
Raymond & Deena Reid
