Colt signups set

By Rick Paullus

Heppner Colt football sign-ups for fifth and sixth graders will be held at the Colt football equipment room at the old middle school building on Aug. 30-31 from 5:30-6:30 p.m. The fee to play is $20 per player.

The equipment will be checked out at this time so players and parents need to attend. The first practice will be held after school on Wednesday, Sept. 1.

1949 Court among honorees at 1999 queen's luncheon

Tri-County All Stars earn sportsmanship award

The Tri-County 14-year-old All Stars played in the North Oregon District 6 Tournament held in Hermiston July 16-22.

The team, which included Josh

Winters, Jerry Shank, Brad Adams, Donald Adams and Conor Kilkenny, from Heppner, lost two games at the tourney-the first to the Hermiston Nationals, 17-7, and the second to The Dalles, 11-3.

The Tri-County All Stars were awarded the tournament sportsmanship trophy.

Congregations plan service, potluck

The congregations of Valby Lutheran Church (Ione) and Hope Lutheran and All Saints' Episcopal churches (Heppner) will hold their Sunday worship at Cutsforth Park (20 miles east of Heppner in the Blue Mountains) on August 29 at 10 a.m.

August marks the first anniversary of the beginning of the shared ministry between Valby, All Saints' and Hope.

They plan to have special music and will also celebrate Holy Communion. "The Lord's Table is open to all who wish to partake," said Pastor Dick Metz.

A potluck dinner will follow worship.

The congregations extend a welcome to anyone who wishes to attend.

Symphony to hold auditions

The Willow Creek Symphony will hold auditions for new players on September 10, starting at 5 p.m. at the Heppner Jr. High band room.

The symphony is composed of both youth and adults. All instruments are welcome and oboe, bassoon, tuba and strings are especially needed. Players wanting to audition should be prepared to play a scale and a piece of their choice.

Rehearsals will begin on September 17 and will be held on Fridays from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at the Heppner Jr. High band room.

Private instruction for strings and woodwind instruments will also be available. To schedule an audition, call Myrna Van Cleave at 676-5448.

The Willow Creek Symphony is funded by the Morrow County Unified Recreation District and sponsored by the Arts Council of Morrow County.

Obituaries

Reta Hazel Hynd

Reta Hazel Hynd, 87, of The Dalles, a former Morrow County resident, died Sunday, August 15, 1999, at Columbia Basin Nursing Home in The Dalles.

Graveside memorial service for Mrs. Hynd was held at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery in Heppner on Saturday, August 21, 1999. She was born August 31, 1911, at Ava, Missouri, to Fred and Laura Jackson Pettyjohn. She was five years old when the family moved to Morrow County from Missouri. She attended schools at Cecil, Morgan and Rock Creek, then attended and graduated from Ione High School.

On June 8, 1932, she married Jack Hynd Jr., at Ione. The couple lived at Weston for seven years and also lived at Glendale, California, for a time before returning to Morrow County. They lived at Cecil before moving to Pendleton in 1972. In July of 1982, the couple moved to The Dalles. Mr. Hynd died in August 1982.

Survivors include daughter, Bonnie Jo Steinke, and son, Richard L. Hynd, both of The Dalles; brothers, Ellis Pettyjohn of Heppner, Jim Pettyjohn of Portland and Clyde Pettyjohn of Newburg; a sister, Gertrude Webb of Ontario; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of the Gorge, P.O. Box 1288, The Dalles, Oregon 97058.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner was in charge of arrangements.
