CSEPP has new public info officer

Umatilla County Chemical Stockpile Emergency Preparedness Program (CSEPP) has named Cheryl Humphrey as public information officer.

"We are looking forward to having Cheryl as a part of our program," says Meg Capps, Umatilla County CSEPP program manager. Her enthusiasm and expertise will enhance our public information and education programs."

Humphrey has served as the executive director for the Pendleton Chamber of Commerce for the past three years and, prior to that, served as the Hermiston Chamber of Commerce executive director.

Humphrey will begin October 1 and will work out of the Umatilla County Emergency Operations Center in Pendleton. The public information officer is responsible for emergency preparedness public education, for Umatilla County residents living near the Umatilla Chemical Depot. Responsibilities also include emergency public information, media relations and other duties as assigned.

Crisis training classes slated

Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault volunteer training sessions have been scheduled in Hermiston and Pendleton. The Domestic Violence Services of Umatilla and Morrow counties needs part-time volunteers, 18 years and older, to work on the crisis line evenings and weekends.

The classes in Hermiston will be held Sept. 21, 23, 28 and 30 from 6-9 p.m. The Pendleton class will be held Sept. 25 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Those planning to enroll must attend all classes. The classes are free of charge.

Call 567-0424 in Hermiston or 276-3322 in Pendleton for more information or class location.

Heritage Trail event scheduled

By Delpha Jones

The north end of the county is planning a Heritage Trail celebration on Sunday, Oct. 17 to commemorate the anniversary of the day in 1805 when the Corps of Discovery passed the Morrow County border.

A pic social will be held so guests are invited to bring pumpkin or apple pie.

The Boardman Library will soon plant a tree in front of the new library. The Morrow County Columbia River Heritage Trail will pass directly in front of the new library. Old time musicians will perform at the celebration and Chief Jones of the Cayuse tribe will bring artifacts and regalia.
