St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

Around 100 seniors were present for the senior meal on Wednesday, Oct. 6. Members of the United Methodist Church served. The Meal Site Committee met after the meal. Hearing aid assistance was given and blood pressures taken before the meal.

The menu for October 20 will be lamb stew, coleslaw, minted pears, whole wheat rolls and cherry cheese cake. Members of the Christian Missionary Fellowship will serve.

The flea market was well attended and the Senior Center did really well. The funds will help support the center.

The new manager of the senior apartments is Marian Murchinson, not Marilyn as stated in the senior news last week.

Judy Buschke has returned to the senior center office after several weeks absence due to illness. It's great to have her back. Elizabeth Straley, who filled in for her for two or three weeks, will fill in for Eleanor Gonty for two weeks. Eleanor is visiting here son and family in Virginia.

Exercise class is still being held on Tues. and Thurs. at 10 a.m. and pinochle is played on Friday afternoons. A movie is shown every Sunday evening at 7 p.m. Last Sunday five seniors watched "You've Got Mail".

Nina Harshman has moved from the senior apartments back to her house. We'll miss her here.
