

Trash can donated to city

Twice Upon a Time, the local bookseller in Heppner, has donated funds to purchase a decorative trash can for downtown Heppner.

Doris Brosnan, owner of the store, expressed concern that there were insufficient trash cans for all the activities held downtown. During Saint Patrick's Celebration, for instance, she noted that there was not a trash can visible anywhere from a location by the Post Office.

When Brosnan approached the city about getting more trash cans downtown, she was informed that the $188 price tag for the cans kept the city from buying many more. The city has limited funds in the budget she was told, and could only purchase a couple receptacles each year. She then offered to donate sufficient funds for the city to purchase another container.

"Perhaps if more business owners would make tax deductible donations to purchase decorative trash containers, it would help to keep the downtown clean and beautiful," she stated.

Commission plans meeting

The Oregon Wheat Commission will hold a regular meeting on Monday, October 25, at the commission office, 1200 N.W. Naito Parkway, Suite 520, Portland, beginning at 2 p.m. Commission meetings are open to the public.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

The Senior Center Board reports that the recent flea market here was successful and enjoyable, with 24 tables operated by local organizations and individuals. Many expressed hope that this market will be repeated next year.

More than 100 seniors attended the dinner Wed., Oct. 13. Thirteen came over from Condon's Summit Springs Assisted Living home. Mildred Wright, long time Morrow County resident, who was a tenant here at the Senior Apartments for several years, was among those who came from Condon. Members of the Episcopal Church served. The Senior Board met after the meal.

The menu for the Oct. 27 birthday dinner is Parmesan chicken, mashed potatoes with gravy, peas with mushrooms, Jell-O fruit salad, biscuits, birthday cake and ice cream. Members of the Nazarene and Seventh-day Adventist churches will serve.

Exercise class was held Tuesday and Thursday at 10 a.m. as usual. Cards were played Tuesday afternoon, but the Friday card players went up to the nursing home to play pinochle with Irene Swanson on Thursday afternoon, so there was no game Friday afternoon. There was no movie Sunday evening due to the rosary for Marie Steagall. The seniors extend their sympathy to her family.

A Housing Authority meeting will be held in the center sitting room Oct. 25.

L. Marie Steagall

L. Marie Steagall, 89, of Lexington, died Thursday, October 14, 1999, at Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

Recitation of the Rosary was Sunday, October 17, 1999 at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Heppner. Funeral Mass was held Monday, October 18, 1999 at St. Patrick Church. Concluding service and burial followed at Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Mrs. Steagall was born August 30, 1910, at Heppner, to Charles and Emma Wright Breshears. She was raised in Lexington and attended schools there, graduating from Lexington High School.

On November 28, 1931, she married Wilbur C. Steagall at Heppner. The couple were lifetime Lexington residents.

Ms. Steagall served as postal clerk in Lexington for many years. She enjoyed sewing, knitting, crossword puzzles, and mostly enjoyed spending time with her children and their spouses and grandchildren.

She was a member of St. Patrick Catholic Church, the Lexington Altar Society, the Lexington Grange and the Lexington Garden Club.

Survivors include sons, Bob Steagall of Lexington, Bill Steagall of Pendleton, and Jim Steagall of Portland; daughters, June Crowell of Ione, Deanna Brandhagen of Pendleton, Pat Dougherty of Heppner, and Barbara Leyva of Wilbur, Washington; sisters, Bunny Richelderfer of The Dalles, Helen Crump of Parkdale and Vera Steagall of Portland; 20 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Wilbur, in 1990, and an infant son in 1933.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Patrick Catholic Church Memorial Fund, P.O. Box 633, Heppner, Oregon 97836; or Pioneer Memorial Hospital Fund, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, Oregon 97836; or a charity of choice.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner was in charge of arrangements.

Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Exec. Dir.

Fill in the blanks: "_____ where earth and sky merge; where you're part of the sunset; where you can relax and unwind; a family affair; limitless opportunities to find yourself." The answer: Morrow County.

These were just a few ideas tossed around by Carol Michael and I as we bent our heads over lunch to prepare the Morrow County ad for the 2000-2001 EOVA (Eastern Oregon Visitors Association) guide.

Photos are still needed for the guide and, if a photograph is selected, EOVA pays $50 for small photo use; $100 for medium to large; and should your photo or slide be selected for the cover, $500. Decisions will be made in November, so if you have some great photos to submit, don't hesitate to do so. They will be returned if you include your name, address and county on the back.

Call the Chamber offices for further information. We have a great county and we want to showcase it.

As winter fast approaches, the Chamber is involved in planning for Stroll Heppner and the light parade; Town and Country; and St. Pat's 2000. All are encouraged to enter a float in the parade; nominate someone for the annual T & C awards; suggest entertainment for the events and attend the meetings. Bread gets stale and so do committees. Share your new ideas with one and all.

Next week I will be attending the Oregon Chamber Executives Conference in Corvallis to prevent fermentation, "stale". That week the membership will have a discussion session during lunch. They choose the topic. Join them, noon at Kate's. Thought for the week: "It takes a long time to grow an old friend."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincerest gratitude and appreciation to the wonderful people who shared our loss with us and who made a special effort to ease our hurt and sorrow.

Your tender words, cards of sympathy, phone calls, gifts of food and genuine caring and tenderness will be treasured forever.

To all the wonderful people at the hospital, no one anywhere could have been any more loving and caring than you were. Words alone are inadequate to say how grateful we are for the care and love that you gave to Mom. Special thank you's to Wendy. Thank you each and everyone.

To this wonderful community, thank you.
The family of Evelyn Warren

Thanks, Heppner,

As we leave this community, we would like to take the time to thank the many people who have touched our lives. Thanks to Pastor Glenn and Phyllis Anderson and the members of Lexington Baptist Church; it has been a pleasure to fellowship and worship our God together. Thanks to the Unruh family, the best neighbors we have ever had. Thanks also to the great crew at the post office: Jeri, Barbara, Mike, Shari, Vicki, and at Lexington, Phyllis and Candace. Any boss would be envious to have a crew like you. To the library gang, Tony, Dorothy and Deborah, thanks for an enjoyable four years. To Claudia, Bob and the rest of the Chamber board and members, I have learned much from you and have enjoyed your friendships. To Jerry, Bob and the City Council and crew, the six years I served as a City Councilman was both pleasant and stress-free. To my many customers, there will never be any better, no matter where we go. I could fill up the paper with names of people here that have meant so much to us.

Heppner is a can-do community and I hope that attitude has rubbed off on us as we move to other areas. In any other community, the mill would have closed down several years ago. In any other community, we would no longer have a hospital. In any other community, the town would be dying. Instead, this community looks to see what can be done and then goes out and does it, instead of just letting things happen without a finger raised, as is the case with so many other communities.

Heppner will always be a part of us and we feel we are not losing our friends, we will just see you a little less frequently. We will return many times to visit, Lord willing, and we hope that as you journey our way, you will make an effort to stop in at Nyssa and say hi to us as well.

Thanks again,
Mike, Nancy, Jannicka,
Jessica and Cory McGuire
