Even as ornery as I am to you girls at the Lexington convenience store, you wished me to be happy. Thank you girls, and Joey.

You, my friends, are very special to me.

We send our heartfelt thanks to those wonderful golfers who interrupted their game to perform life-saving duties. The EMTs were awesome. Special thanks to Carl and Peg for their caring. Tony and Greg, you are appreciated and the wonderful staff at Pioneer Memorial Hospital has now served four generations of Browns.

Kyle and Betty 10-27-1c

A little late, but still thought of! The Heppner DayCare, Inc. Board and Staff would like to thank many people for their generosity towards the Center. As the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo arrives, everyone in the community sheds blood, sweat and tears. We all feel overwhelmed but still anxiously await for the week to get here.

Asking for someone's time is scary. Asking for donations is scary. Yet every year, the businesses in our community are bombarded with the question, "Would you donate...?" I was very fortunate to receive the donations for the DayCare Bingo game. We made $70 and accepted it towards our preschool supplies. The following people and their donations were: Lube and Oil Service valued at $40, Brannon's Auto Repair; four single $5 gift certificates, Peterson's Jewelers; $5 gift certificate, Gardner's Men's Wear; Wampus burger certificate and large milkshake certificate; R&W Drive-In; two-day pass, Morrow County Fair Board; Mikasa vase, LaRae Kindle; 20 hours of child care, Heppner DayCare, two games and puzzle, Air Supply CD, anonymous. A big thank you to Lucinda Clement for taking over and organizing the Bingo game at the last minute. And to Carol Mitchell and St. Patrick's Senior Center for letting us borrow your Bingo game.

This year the Heppner Lions Club gave the DayCare .25¢ for every rodeo program we sold and the Rodeo Club gave .50¢. We made a total of $302.25 that will go towards our preschool program. The Rodeo Board in the past years has been kind to give us their support and loyalty in giving the proceeds to the Center.

You, the community, visitors and travelers, enter the Fair and Rodeo by acknowledging the bright, smiling, energetic faces at the main gate. For the last four years I have managed the gate and lots of you now know me by name or face, if you don't already. Either you smile at me and go on by or you scowl and pay your $2 a day. Well, guess what? I'm not leaving and either is my crew that supports the DayCare. I love everyone of you people and you make it a challenge every year. Thanks for keeping me on my toes. The faces you greet for four days belong to these people: Kim George, Dawna Dougherty, Susie Re, Becky and Jim Kinde, Bobette Lovgren, Leah Brosnan, Lea Calvert, Melanie Smith, Tony and Lucinda Clement, Patti Rill, Archie and Jeanette Padberg, Theresa Hintz, John, Liz Green and son John, Aleshia, Tylynn Smith, Angela Moore, Lindsay Clough, Patti Pappas, Raelene Burkenbine, Darrell Raver, Tiffany Piper, Cara Kennedy, Heather Rill and Martha Munkers.

To the Morrow County Fair Board, you have given me the gift of giving (bless your hearts for the dirt and the complainers). I feel lucky to be able to receive the gift that you have given to me the last four years. The community should know that you are such supporters to the community. The board gives to myself a sum of money. The first year I received $400 to our local summer program involving the Neighborhood Center. The last two years I had a son in Heppner Preschool and chose to give the center the funds. One year it was $400, the other $600. This last August, I received a shocking $750. Wow! This is given to the Heppner DayCare, Inc. The board let me choose what organization I plan to give the money to and as the director of the Heppner DayCare, I chose the Center. We are a non-profit organization. Nothing comes real easy for us. Thanks for giving me this opportunity to help you and the community's child care center.

To all the above people, thank you for our hearts at the Center. You truly are remarkable and will always be part of the Center. You graciously give of yourself and continue to do so. What a great group of people that I have been graced with. Thank you. (Pam, how was that?)

Merry Brannon Director of Heppner DayCare, Inc. 10-27-1c
