St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

One hundred and three people were present for the senior dinner Dec. 15, and 17 meals were home delivered. Members of the Christian Church served. Tests for osteoporosis were done in the office until 1 p.m., and a presentation given by the doctor at noon in the dining room. He answered many questions from those present for the dinner. Hearing aid assistance was given and blood pressures taken before the meal. The Senior Center Board met at 1 p.m.

The menu for Wednesday, Dec. 29, will be sausage patties, hashbrowns and gravy, pancakes with blueberry topping, orange juice and biscuits. Members of the Catholic Church will serve.

The Kool Kitchen Kids 4-H Club and their leader brought plates of delicious Christmas cookies for the seniors to share. It was such a thoughtful thing to do.

John Church drove the senior bus Sunday afternoon, taking seven passengers to the symphony concert, then around town to see the Christmas lights. Two more passengers were picked up at the center after the concert to see the lights.

Bingo was played Tuesday night with a good turnout. Remember Bingo is played every Tuesday evening from 7-9 p.m. Exercises are at 10 a.m. every Tuesday and Thursday; pinochle is played on Tuesday and Friday at 1 p.m.

Be sure to remember to come to the big New Year's Eve party at the Senior Center; all those over 60 are welcome. Bring finger foods for refreshments, and join in the fun. The date, of course, is Dec. 31 from 10 p.m. to 12:30 a.m..

The Housing Authority meeting is Dec. 27 at 7 p.m..

CARD OF THANKS

The things that I have to be thankful for this Christmas season could literally fill a book. But, since space is limited, let me just say that the fire which took my home and all my possessions did not, because of the quick thinking of my daughter, Amanda Lynn Davis, harm us. And, with the help of a unnamed log truck driver and my cousins, Mark, Scott and Joan, my car was saved, thus making it possible for me to deliver your Christmas mail and packages.

It is said that God can turn anything bad into good, and after the loving and incredibly generous support of this community, I am not only overwhelmed with gratitude, I now know that God can really do what He has promised. Everyone has been so kind and I am deeply touched. And lastly, I say a heartfelt thank you to Rick and Sheila for their around-the-clock love and support. Family, friends, businesses and yes, even total strangers, have come to my aid and my appreciation is immeasurable. From Amanda and me, may you know that we have been blessed, because of you, and because of those angels who watch over all of us.

Many thanks from all of us,
Vicki and Amanda Davis
