

Mustang girls romp past Eagles 51-30

By Rick Paullus

The Heppner Mustang girls' varsity easily beat the visiting Joseph Eagles, 51-30, on Thursday, Dec. 23. The win improved the Mustangs' pre-season record to 7-4 with just one more game before the Columbia Basin Conference begins Friday, Jan. 7, in Pilot Rock.

The Eagles jumped out to a 3-0 lead before the Mustangs got a basket from San Juanita Elguezabal, two straight from Casey Ingraham and a three-pointer from Ashley Ropp to take a 9-3 lead.

Two free throws from Ingraham and a rebound basket from Shelley Rietmann increased the lead to 3-5. Rebound baskets by Lacey Matteson and Amy Papineau gave the Mustangs a 17-7 lead at the end of the first quarter.

A basket by Rietmann, another three-pointer by Ropp and two free throws by Papineau increased the lead to 24-7 to start the second quarter. Trisha Adams added a rebound basket as the Mustangs took a 28-12 lead at halftime.

Rietmann and Adams combined for nine of the first 11 points of the third quarter as the Mustangs blew open the game, taking a 39-12 lead. Two free throws by Rietmann, and a long jumper and a rebound basket by Ingraham made it 45-13 and a jumper by Matteson made it 47-15 at halftime.

The Mustangs' only points of the fourth quarter were baskets by Jodie Carlson and Meghan Bailey as the Mustangs coasted to the 51-30 win.

Ingraham had a fine all-around game with 10 points, four rebounds, three assists and two steals. Rietmann also had a good game with 10 points, five rebounds and four steals. Adams finished with seven points and Elguezabal had six points, two steals and two blocked shots. Matteson led the Mustangs with eight rebounds.

The Mustangs hit 9-10 free throws for the game.
