The two with the most potatoes in their bucket as time runs out will win t-shirts.

Contestants vie for bartender's trophy

The O'Graybeal's Bartender Race is especially important this year, for one of the contesting businesses could lay permanent claim to the trophy. Presently, the trophy is displayed at Bucknum's Tavern, the winning business last year. Bucknum's has won the race twice, but Beecher's Restaurant and Lounge has also won two times.

If either of the two wins this year, the trophy will become a permanent fixture behind the winner's bar. Neither business can take success for granted, however, and they must both be prepared to meet and prevail over the other expected challengers.

Both Cal's and the Elks Club have been encouraged to send their best tenders. Should either of those two win, Bucknum's and Beecher's will have to wait one more year to try to lay permanent claim on the trophy.

The race will begin at the shamrock after the 12:30 p.m. bagpipe performance, just preceding the 1 p.m. parade.

Major boys, girls tryouts

The Heppner Little League meeting is at 7 p.m., Thursday, March 16, at Cal's Restaurant.
