

Studded tire season ends April 1

The time for one of Oregon's rites of spring is approaching—April 1—that's when studded tires must be removed from vehicles. Drivers with studded tires on their vehicles after April 1 can be charged with a class "C" traffic violation, which carries a maximum $150 fine.

The 1997 Legislature set the April 1 date, moving it forward from April 30 to reduce road damage caused by the tires. ODOT spends an estimated $11 million each year repairing damage caused by tires with studs, according to Doug Tindall, ODOT maintenance engineer.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

Eighty-eight people were present for the St. Patrick's dinner at the Senior Center on March 15. Fourteen meals were taken out. Members of the Christian Missionary Fellowship served. Blood pressures were taken before the meal.

The menu for the birthday dinner Wednesday, March 29, will be glazed ham balls, seasoned noodles, peas with mushrooms, apple raisin salad, rolls and pound cake. Members of the First Christian Church will serve.

The senior breakfast and soup, roll and pie luncheon were very well attended. All the volunteer help was appreciated. We couldn't do these projects with out lots of volunteers.

Exercises were at 10 a.m. Tuesday and Thursday; pinocle was on Tuesday and Friday from 1-4 p.m. and the movie, "The Prince of Egypt," was shown Thursday at 2 p.m.. There is always a jigsaw puzzle being worked on. Everyone is welcome to take part in any of these activities.

A "55 Alive" class will be held at the senior center April 3-4. Those seniors wishing to brush up on their driving skills should get signed up soon.

The Red Cross will hold a blood drawing at the center Monday, April 3. Please come give the gift of life.

Soloists compete at district

Ten Heppner vocal and instrumental music students were among over 150 students who competed at the Oregon Music Educators Association District VI Solo and Ensemble Contest. The competition was held in Pendleton.

Competitors were rated with a one as the highest possible score and a five the lowest. The five different divisions in the contest were vocal, instrumental, strings, piano and percussion.

Four Heppner girls competed in the vocal division. Abby Kahl received a one-minus rating for her soprano vocal solo. A girls' trio made up of Amanda Sneddon and Abby Kahl, sopranos, and Laurie Michael, alto, received a rating of two for their performance. Autumn Chick also received a two rating for her soprano solo.

In the high school instrumental division, Heppner had two trumpet soloists. Mitch Matthews received a two-plus rating and Darren Van Cleave a two. Daniel Jepsen and Emily Unruh each received a top rating of one for their clarinet and flute solos, respectively. In the middle school division (grades six- eight) Heppner had three performers. Amy Jepsen received a one rating on her piano solo. Kelly Straley performed a flute solo and Matthew Van Cleave had a trombone solo, with each receiving a two rating for their efforts.

Deborah Wryn of Ione accompanied flutist Kelly Straley on the piano. All of the other soloists were accompanied by pianist Myrna Van Cleave of Heppner.

The top performers at district competition advance to the state level. Daniel Jepsen was selected to advance to the Oregon State Solo Finals in the clarinet division. That competition will be held at the University of Oregon in Eugene, on Saturday, April 29.

According to Heppner Band director and music teacher Ralph Werner, this was the largest number of Heppner students to compete at district competition in several years.
