4-H News

Pins and Patterns and Pans

By Emily Bergstrom

On March 17, the 4-H group made homemade chili for the Meyer's family. They also worked on the banner that people will see at fair.

Club members also drew names for the next person to bring a recipe to have the group cook. They drew out Emily Bergstrom's name.

In May the group will cook a meal for Krystal Nairns and her family.

They are also are deciding on what the fair projects are going to be.

Critters With Attitude

By Kylee Disque

Critters with attitude held their first meeting of the year at the fairgrounds.

Club members elected officers. Sam VanLiew was elected president; Nick Wilson, vice-president; Heather Yocom, secretary; Jessica Wainright, treasurer; and Kylee Disque as reporter.

The other members of the club are Jason Wainright, Justin Gregory and James Van Liew.

Members discussed fund raisers and community service projects for the upcoming year.

They filled out calendars with future 4-H activities and learned about parliamentary procedure.

The next meeting was planned for March 12.
