High school, college rodeo contestants take home wins

Local rodeo contestants are taking home wins at high school and college rodeos.

Brian Knowles finished first in saddle bronc riding and fourth in steer wrestling at a college rodeo held March 3-5 at Walla Walla.

Justin Matteson was second in team roping and Lexi Matteson was second in breakaway roping at the Walla Walla rodeo.

Justin Matteson finished first in team roping, along with Cody Laumb at a March 25-26 college rodeo held in Lewiston, Idaho. Matteson and Emmet Evans were second in team roping and Matteson also finished fourth in steer wrestling at the Lewiston rodeo.

At the Eugene High School Rodeo held March 24-25, Blake Knowles and Ryan Matteson were first in team roping. Knowles also took first in steer wrestling and Matteson was second. Lacey Matteson took first in barrel racing at Eugene.

Orchestra, chorale concerts planned

Inland Northwest Orchestra and Chorale presents the next set of concerts in their current season on Saturday, April 1, and Sunday, April 2.

The Saturday performance will be in John Day in the old gym at Grant Union High School at 7:30 p.m.

The Sunday concert will be at 3:15 p.m. at the Vert Auditorium in Pendleton. The program for both concerts includes two works for chorus and orchestra and a special selection by Copeland for narrator and orchestra.

The orchestra and chorale performs Gabriel Faure's "delicate and subdued "Requiem"; written in memory of his father. Soloists RaNiel Dunn of Hermiston and Harvey Foreman of Pendleton are featured in seven movements. "Serenade to Music" by Ralph Vaughan Williams follows, again featuring RaNiel and Harvey along with additional soloists Philip Ruud, Larry Coppock, Jedd Nelson, Karin Trees, Arlene Thompson, Ray Trees Jr, Carl Anderson, Mary Finney, Lora Gosslee and Teresa Best.

MCGC News

By Sandi Day

The Morrow County Gun Club (MCGC) held their weekly shoot on a beautiful Sunday, March 26, afternoon at the club in Lexington. A good turnout of shooters finished the sixth week of league shooting.

MCGC president Curt Day and Harvey Childers shot near-perfect scores at the 16 yard line with 24 of 25, followed by Mick Sharp with 23 and Travis Greenup with 22. At the 20 yard handicap line, Mark Schlichting took first with 23. Harvey Childers was second with 22 and Deona Hodges was third with a personal best of 21 of 25.

Junior shooters Chance Day and Tayler Hodges shot a close match with Chance finally taking first and Tayler, second.

Four Annie Oakley shoots and one golf round were held with Mark Schlichting winning two Annie's and the golf round and Brian Haguewood and Harvey Childers each with one.

The piece was composed in 1938 for a performance at Albert Hall honoring conductor Sir Henry Joseph Wood, with words from Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice".

The orchestra presents "A Lincoln Portrait" for narrator and orchestra by Aaron Copeland, one of the best known and respected American composers of this generation. This piece was written in 1942 in response to a commission from conductor Andre Kostelanetz for American composers to write orchestral works descriptive of great Americans.

Katherine Brighton of Pendleton will narrate, using many of Lincoln's own words and concluding with the closing lines of the Gettysburg address. Brighton has forged a 30-year career in the entertainment business, in particular directing productions at Walt Disney World, Universal Studios, FL, and on TV and stage.

Local players include cellist Laura McElligott, violinists Ben Stillman and Kathryn Unruh, trombonist Isaiah Stillman and french horn, Jennifer Waldrep.

Tickets in Pendleton are $8 for adults and $5 for students/seniors. Students from Pendleton and Pilot Rock will be admitted free. Because of local sponsorship, tickets in John Day will be $5 for adults and $3 for seniors. All students in and around John Day will be admitted free.

The same weekend, club members Curt Day and Sandi Day, Barry Munkers and Rob Ashbeck participated in a meat shoot at the gun club in Fossil.

At the end of the sixth week of league shooting, with only two weeks left to go, the leaders are Harvey Childers and Sandi Day, followed closely by Mick Sharp and Roger Mortimore. Stay tuned.

Christian Life Center to host guest speaker

Evangelist Pieter Bos will be guest speaker at Christian Life Center, 535 W. Morgan St., on Sunday, April 2, at 10:30 a.m. and 7 p.m. He will also speak on Thursday and Friday, April 6-7, Sunday, April 9, at 10:30 a.m. and 7 p.m. and Monday through Thursday, April 10-13, at 7 p.m.

Everyone is invited to attend. Bos was born in the Netherlands and was raised in a Dutch Reformed home. His desire to become involved in ministry and missions started when he was about 10 years old, while he was attending a Sunday school class where missionaries were talking about their experiences on the field.

"Having been raised under extremely difficult circumstances and after a period of teenage rebellion, he forgot about his vision, but God didn't. When God regained his attention, he re-committed his life to the Lord and was baptized with the Holy Spirit," said a news release.

Before long Bos was involved in a Pentecostal church and in inner-city ministry.

A few years later he married an American girl who worked with Youth With a Mission in Amsterdam, Holland. They have two children.

Upon arrival in the U.S., Bos taught evangelism and discipleship; he worked as a counselor/teacher and training center director in the ministry of Teen Challenge in Pennsylvania and in Washington as a pastor and as an "evangelist with a heart for missions." He is an ordained minister in the Assemblies of God.

Bos "desire is to motivate the body of Christ to operate in the gifts of the Holy Spirit and become active participants in fulfilling the Great Commission, and see people being saved, delivered, healed, restored and reconciled by the power of God," said the release.

MCURD to meet

The Morrow County Unified Recreation District will meet this Thursday, March 30, beginning at 7 p.m. at the Morrow County Annex in Irrigon.

Old business includes a resolution for public contracting and a resolution for a public contract board.

New business includes the school district contract for the school year 2000-2001 and policy review.

The chairman's report will include the Art Council-Willow Creek Symphony update, the school board budget committee meeting, correspondence with Kahl Insurance and the treasurer's report.

The next meeting will be held April 27 at 7 p.m. at the Lone High School, with a budget committee meeting at 7:30 p.m.
