Ione men dominate Devils, Ione women split program

Aaron Tworek prepares to serve during his match.

Caitlin Orem waits for a serve from her opponent.

Jeremy Rietmann waits for a call on a shot he sent over the net.

Ione tennis teams hosted Condon High School on Thursday, April 6. Ione women split their matches, 3-3, while the Ione men dominated the Blue Devils with five wins and one loss.

Jeremy Rietmann defeated Trevor Yoder 8-0. "Rietmann displayed explosive serves and smart shot placement," said coach Cathy McCabe.

Derek Campbell lost to Nathan Clark 3-8. "Campbell improves constantly on his court coverage," said McCabe.

Aaron Tworek duked it out with former Heppner High School student Josh McKinney to post a win of 8-4. "Tworek utilized his exceptional speed by rushing the net to dominate his opponent," McCabe said.

The doubles duo of Adam McCabe and Adam Neiffer easily defeated their opponents, Heath Anderson and Joey Trotter. "McCabe and Neiffer exposed their adversary's weaknesses and hit the ball to the open area on the court," she said.

Colin McElligott and Jeremiah McElligott defeated Shawn Campbell and Josh McKinney, 8-1. The team of McElligott x2 did an "excellent job of covering the baseline and taking advantage of the net plays."

David Mansfeld and Cameron Krebs defeated Trevor Yoder and Nathan Clark, 8-3. Mansfeld had some long rallies that often ended in their favor. Krebs overcame some difficulties he had during the beginning of the match for a strong finish. Mansfeld hustled on the court for massive coverage posting several saves.

Jennifer Thompson was handed a loss by Tania Trotter, 1-8. Thompson had a good match but Trotter is a hard hitter who uses a huge amount of topspin, making getting the ball off the ground very difficult.
