

Time to think about rodeo tickets

Oregon Trail Rodeo time is fast approaching and it's time to think about purchasing tickets, says Sue Gibbs, OTRP media chair.

The rodeo bleachers are set up with two types of seating. General admission tickets can be purchased at the gate the day of the rodeo or VIP seats can be purchased in advance through Tom or Karen Wolf.

The general admission seats are sold on a first-come-first-serve basis. These are bleacher type bench seats that sit above the VIP seats with a walkway between the rows, says Gibbs. They can be purchased at the gate entering the rodeo. Prices on Friday and Saturday are $8 for adults and $5 for children seven-12 years old. Children six and under are admitted free.

VIP seating is reserved seating. These are individual blue plastic seats with backs on each seat. They sit down close to all the action of the rodeo.

Gibbs says that the grandstands will be patrolled this year by ushers to help people find their individual seats and to eliminate "squatters" from sitting in VIP seating.

The VIP seats can be purchased for all three days in groups of 10 for $360 or individual seats for $36. This purchase will also give first option to reserve the same seats the following year, says Gibbs.

Individuals or businesses that purchased VIP seats last year have until July 7 to remit their amount due for their seats this year. Any seats not paid by this time will be available for "upgrades" or new purchase for the "2000" rodeo, she says. Tickets will be mailed out as early as possible.

Some VIP seats are still available.

Those who are interested in VIP seats or have questions about what options are available should call Tom or Karen Wolf at 676-5114.

General admission tickets can be purchased at the gate from Aug. 18-20.

Each performance will kick off with mutton bustin' for the kids 30 minutes prior to show time.

"We hope that the VIP seating and other improvements made to the rodeo grounds makes the performances better than ever in '2000,'" adds Gibbs.

Local students named to OSU honor roll

Names of students who have made the scholastic honor roll spring term have been announced by Oregon State University.

A total of 391 students earned straight-A (4.0). Another 1,855 earned a B-plus (3.5) or better to make the listing. To be on the honor roll, students must carry at least 12 graded hours of course work.

Local honor roll students include:

3.5 or Better: Robert A. Bates, post baccalaureate, pre-engineering program, Kristi K. Mason, sophomore, agricultural sciences, both Boardman; Robert J. Brown, senior, science, Irrigon; Joseph A. Lindsay, Senior, agricultural sciences, Lexington.

Willow creek Symphony to perform

The Willow Creek Symphony will perform on Sunday, July 2, from 3-5 p.m. at the Lone Amphitheatre.

The Heppner-based symphony consists of 45 players between the ages of eight and 70.

Musical selections for the concert will include "The Pink Panther," "Shenandoah," and "Swing Yer Pardner."

The Inland Northwest Orchestra and Chorale, a regional organization based in Pendleton, will also perform at the same concert.

All three groups will combine for the final two selections. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "America the Beautiful."

The concert is free to the public and those planning to attend should bring lawnchairs and a picnic lunch.

The Willow Creek Symphony is directed by R. Lee Friese and Anthony Marks.

Sponsors for this season include Wesley and Diane Hickey, Waste Connections and the Morrow County Commission on Children and Families.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank all of our wonderful friends that helped us out last week in our time of need. Thank you to the Dr.'s and staff at Pioneer Memorial, St. Anthony's and the ambulance crew. Your thoughts, help and prayers are appreciated greatly.

Allens

bazaar are used for lone High School scholarships, except for last year when monies were donated to the IUCC building fund. While her children were home, Jannie was also very active in the lone Ecumenical Youth Group. As a teacher at HES, she has made the annual trek to Tupper Outdoor School with her young charges for the last 11 years. In her spare (?) time, she loves gardening, working on crafts, writing and helping with other community activities and events.

Dick is active in the lone Community Agri-Business Organization and has served as its president. He served two years on the lone City Council and for many years coached Little League. He is an avid hunter and also enjoys working on classic cars. He is in the process of restoring a 1967 Chevelle Supersport 396, but unfortunately it won't be ready to transport the grand marshals in this year's parade.

The Allens also like camping and enjoy spending time with their fifth wheel.

In addition to children, Steve, who is a student at the University of Oregon, and Elizabeth, who is a student at Lane Community College, both at Eugene, the Allen family also includes Moose, their beloved five-year-old chocolate lab who lives up to his name.

Jannie has a brother, Jack Chase, who lives in Redding, CA; Dick's brothers, Bob Allen and Harvey Blank, both live in Idaho. Dick and Jannie's parents and Dick's brother, Charles, have passed away.

Elizabeth spent her junior year of high school as an exchange student in Scotland, where Jannie's cousin lives. Dick, who is Irish, and Jannie, who is Scottish, have a dream of someday living a year in Scotland, using it as a home base for traveling in Europe.
