

Leadership training held

Craig Smith, an instructor with the Rural Development Initiatives, puts on a leadership training program at the Senior Center in Heppner last Wednesday. The program is part of a free program organized by Heppner City Manager Jerry Braezeale to help people learn how to develop strategies for community change, identify leadership styles, conduct negotiations, improve communications and to increase effectiveness in working with meetings. Similar programs will be held in Boardman, Irrigon, Lone and Lexington in the coming weeks.

Musicians sought

Inland Northwest Musicians extend an invitation to instrumentalists and singers to join in preparations for the 2000-2001 concert season. A program of orchestral and choral literature is planned for concert presentations throughout the region, under the leadership of music director and conductor R. Lee Friese.

The Inland Northwest Orchestra will begin rehearsals on Thursday, Sept. 7, at Harris Junior Academy, 3121 SW

Hailey Ave. in Pendleton.

Inland Northwest Chorale rehearses on Monday nights at the Bisnett Building, on the corner of Byers and Main St. in Pendleton. Both groups welcome musicians who want to experience the "thrill of preparing and performing music by the great composers".

Interested players and singers may contact Friese at the Inland Northwest Musicians offices, 938-0645 in Milton-Freewater and 966-6649 in Pendleton.

Arlington Saddle Club plans ride

The Arlington Saddle Club is sponsoring a public trail ride at the Copple Butte Trail on Sunday, Sept. 24. It will be a single day ride with registration at 9:30-10 a.m. and the ride leaving at 10 a.m. sharp.

Riders should meet at the Coal Mine Hill day use area, 1-1/2 miles south of Cutsforth Park on Highway 678, 19-1/2 miles southeast of Heppner.

This Copple Butte trail is appropriate for intermediate riders. It is an up-and-back route over the same trail. The entire ride is 18 miles long but anyone can shorten the ride by turning around at any point.

There will be a charge of $5 per person or $10 per family. Those planning to attend should pack a lunch and water to take with them on the ride.

Everyone rides at their own risk. Since it is bow hunting season, riders are advised to wear hunter orange.

The Arlington Saddle Club requests that no dogs be brought along on the ride. Children under the age of 12 must have an adult accompanying them on the ride.

For further information, contact Jim Rucker at 454-2509 or Sue Greer at 454-2179.

Cardinal Booster club kicks off season

By Jeri McElligott

The Cardinal Booster Club hosted a community back-to-school potluck Thursday, Sept. 7, at the Lone High School cafeteria.

The club provided hamburgers with condiments, table settings, and beverages. The new school principal, Mike Stuart, and his wife, Diane, and new Spanish teacher, Naomi Estrada-Suro, were introduced.

Committees were formed for upcoming activities. The community calendar committee includes Debbie Radie, Cathy McCabe and Debbie Morgan. Vicky Wagenblast, Becky Tullis and Terri Palmateer will be in charge of treats for the Christmas program. The scholarship committee will consist of high school teacher Dale Holland and community members Anita Orem and Katherine Lindstrom. Cathy Gates, Kelly and Debbie Campbell and Sharon Rietmann will decorate the cafeteria and organize refreshments for graduation. Ann Morter will chair the 2001 fall potluck.

Parents of lone students voted Cindy Burright and Wendy Archer on to the Lone Site Council.

Athletic Director Dean Robinson showed members the new equipment bags the club bought for the football players. Thirty bags were purchased with a Cardinal logo and player numbers on each bag. Robinson will sign up middle school football players to act as ball boys during the high school games.

The sport schedule posters will soon be available. The club has Cardinal Big Sky hats for sale at Beecher's Cafe and the Bank of Eastern Oregon. The club is also selling logo merchandise. Anyone interested in ordering should contact Debbie Radie. Cardinal antenna balls will be sold for $1.50 each.

The club approved paying the balance of $250 on the middle school football jerseys. Also approved was $149 plus shipping for a new Hex Bar for the weight lifting class taught by Dale Holland.

Debbie Morgan will organize concessions for the Sept. 19 volleyball game with Heppner. The club will also organize a steak feed for either the Dufur or Condon game, pending approval of the classes that have concessions.

Due to SAT tests Saturday, Oct. 14, the volleyball game times have been changed. The middle school girls will play at 1 p.m. and high school girls at 3 p.m.

Lone High School students will be awarded the OSAA Cup for excellence in academics, athletics and activities prior to the powder puff football game at 5 p.m. Oct. 11.

Yearbooks are still available at the high school office for $20 each.

The next meeting of Cardinal Booster Club will be Monday, October 2.
