

Ione High School holds sports dessert

Shelby Krebs

By Jeri McElligott

Ione High School held its fall sports awards dessert on Tuesday, Nov. 14.

Principal Mike Stuart gave the welcome and announced Shelby Krebs as the state winner in the 2000 Wendy's High School Heisman Program based on scholarship, athletics and citizenship.

As a state winner Krebs received a silver medal and $500 for Ione High School. Ione senior Corey Morgan received a bronze medal for placing in the top 10 state wide.

Volleyball coach Charity McElligott gave out volleyball awards and letters. Most Improved Players for the year were Tracy Griffith and Kristina Powell. Teammates voted Shelby Krebs, Most Inspirational, and Diana McElligott, Most Valuable Player.

The Ione football team finished tied for 11th in the state. Coach Dale Holland recapped the highlights of the season and gave out letters and awards.

The Most Improved Player was John Collin. The award for the hardest hits went to Adam Neiffer. Cory Bennetto was voted Most Inspirational Player and Corey Morgan, Most Valuable Player, by their teammates.

The coaches were presented gifts from their players as thanks for their support through the fall season.
